AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to the continuation of death benefits to a surviving spouse regardless of remarriage

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Subdivisions 1-b, 1-c, 1-d, 2, 2-a and 2-b of section 16 of 2     the workers' compensation law, subdivisions 1-b, 1-c and 2 as amended by 3     chapter 168 of the laws of 1979, subdivision 2-a as amended by chapter 4     174 of the laws of 1981 and subdivisions 1-d and 2-b as added by chapter 5     689 of the laws of 2007, are amended to read as follows: 6     1-b. If there be a surviving spouse and no child of the deceased under 7     the age of eighteen years and no child of any age dependent blind or 8     physically disabled, and the death occurs on or after July first, nine-9     teen hundred forty-eight, and prior to January first, nineteen hundred 10    seventy-eight, to such spouse forty per centum of the average wages of 11    the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood [with two years' compen-12    sation in one sum, upon remarriage]; and where the death occurred prior 13    to July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, to such wife (or dependent 14    husband) thirty per centum of such wages during widowhood (or dependent 15    widowerhood) [with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage].
16    1-c. If there be a surviving spouse and no child of the deceased under 17    the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if 18    enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educa-19    tional institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is 20    certified by such institution and no child of any age dependent blind or 21    physically disabled, and the death occurs on or after January first, 22    nineteen hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse sixty-six and two-thirds 23    per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or 24    widowerhood [with two years' compensation, in one sum, upon remarriage].

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [ ] is old law to be omitted.

LBD05484-01-3

Where the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, and the spouse is receiving the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act, the death benefit payable under this section shall be reduced in accordance with the provisions of table No. 1 below by five per centum of the spouse's share of the survivor's insurance benefits under the social security act for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one hundred dollars provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed fifty per centum of said spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act.

1-d. If there be a surviving spouse of an employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the proximate cause of death, and no child of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution, and no child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled, to such spouse seventy-five per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood[, with two years' compensation, in one sum, upon remarriage]. Where such death occurs, and the spouse is receiving the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act, the death benefit payable under this section shall be reduced in accordance with the provisions of table No. I in subdivision one-c of this section by five per centum of the spouse's share of the survivor's insurance benefits under the social security act for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one hundred dollars; provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed fifty per centum of such spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act.

2. If there be a surviving spouse and a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years or a surviving child or children of any age dependent blind or physically disabled, and the death occurs on or after July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, and prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse thirty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood

1 or widowhood [with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remar-2 riage]; and the additional amount of twenty per centum of such wages for 3 each such child until the age of eighteen years or until the removal of 4 the dependency of the blind or physically disabled child or children; in 5 case of the subsequent death [or remarriage] of such surviving spouse 6 any surviving child of the deceased employee, at the time under eighteen 7 years of age or dependent through mental or physical infirmity, shall 8 have his compensation increased to thirty per centum of such wages, and 9 the same shall be payable until he shall reach the age of eighteen years 10 or until such dependent blind or physically disabled condition shall 11 have been removed; provided that the total amount payable shall in no 12 case exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages. Upon 13 statutory termination of compensation payments to all such children, the 14 compensation of the surviving spouse shall be increased to forty per 15 centum of such wages [with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one 16 sum, upon remarriage].

17 If there be a surviving wife (or dependent husband) and any of the 18 aforementioned surviving children, and the death occurred prior to July 19 first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, to such wife (or dependent husband) 20 thirty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood 21 (or dependent widowhood) [with two years' compensation in one sum, 22 upon remarriage]; and the additional amount of ten per centum of such 23 wages for each such child until eighteen years of age or until the 24 removal of the dependency of the blind or physically disabled child or 25 children; in case of the subsequent death [or remarriage] of such 26 surviving wife (or dependent husband) any surviving child of the 27 deceased shall have his compensation increased to fifteen per centum of 28 such wages until he shall reach the age of eighteen years or until such 29 dependent blind or physically disabled condition shall have been 30 removed; provided that the total amount payable shall in no case exceed 31 sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages.

32 The board may in its discretion require the appointment of a guardian 33 for the purpose of receiving the compensation of a minor child or a 34 dependent blind or physically disabled child. In the absence of such a 35 requirement by the board the appointment of a guardian for such purposes 36 shall not be necessary.

37 2-a. If there be a surviving spouse and a surviving child under the 38 age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled 39 and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational insti-40 tution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such 41 institution or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or phys-42 ically disabled and the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen 43 hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse thirty-six and two-thirds per 44 centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widower-45 hood [with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage]; and 46 thirty per centum of such wages to such child under the age of eighteen 47 years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending 48 as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such 49 enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution or 50 a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled; in 51 the case of the subsequent death of such surviving spouse the surviving 52 child shall have his compensation increased to sixty-six and two-thirds 53 per centum of such wages and the same shall be payable so long as he is 54 under the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years 55 if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educa-

certified by such institution or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled; upon statutory termination of compensation payable to such child, the compensation of the surviving spouse shall be increased to sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages [with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one sum, upon remarriage. Upon remarriage of such surviving spouse, the surviving child shall continue to receive thirty per centum of such wages]. Where the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight and the spouse is receiving survivors insurance benefits under the social security act, the death benefit payable under this section shall be reduced by five per centum of the spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one hundred dollars provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed fifty per centum of said spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act as set forth in table No. I below.

2-b. If there be a surviving spouse of an employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the proximate cause of death, and a surviving child under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution, or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled, to such spouse forty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood[, with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage];
 and thirty-five per centum of such wages to such child under the age of 1 eight years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and 2 attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institu-3 tion and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such 4 institution, or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or phys-5 ically disabled; in the case of the subsequent death of such surviving 6 spouse the surviving child shall have his or her compensation increased 7 to seventy-five per centum of such wages and the same shall be payable 8 so long as he or she is under the age of eighteen years, or under the 9 age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time 10 student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and 11 full-time attendance is certified by such institution, or a surviving 12 child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled; upon statutory 13 termination of compensation payable to such child, the compensation of 14 the surviving spouse shall be increased to seventy-five per centum of 15 such wages [with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one sum, upon 16 remarriage. Upon remarriage of such surviving spouse, the surviving 17 child shall continue to receive thirty-five per centum of such wages].

18 Where such death occurs, and the spouse is receiving survivors insurance 19 benefits under the social security act, the death benefit payable under 20 this section shall be reduced by five per centum of the spouse's share 21 of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act for 22 each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one 23 hundred dollars; provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed 24 fifty per centum of such spouse's share of the survivors insurance bene-25 fits under the social security act as set forth in table No. I in subdi-26 vision one-c of this section. If there be a surviving spouse of an 27 employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center 28 rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue 29 worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the prox-30 imate cause of death, and two or more surviving children under the age of 31 eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and 32 attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institu-33 tion and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such 34 institution, or a surviving child or children of any age dependent blind 35 or physically disabled and a death occurs on or after September elev-36 enth, two thousand one, to such spouse forty per centum of the average 37 wage of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood [with two years' 38 compensation in one sum upon remarriage]; and thirty-five per centum of 39 such wages to such children under the age of eighteen years, or under 40 the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time 41 student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and 42 full-time attendance is certified by such institution, or a surviving 43 child or children of any age dependent blind or physically disabled, 44 share and share alike; in case of the subsequent death of such surviving 45 spouse the surviving children shall have their compensation increased to 46 seventy-five per centum of such wages and the aggregate sum shall be 47 payable, share and share alike, so long as they are under the age of
49 attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institu-50 tion and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such 51 institution, or a surviving child or children of any age dependent blind 52 or physically disabled. [Upon remarriage of such surviving spouse, if 53 there be two surviving children each shall receive thirty-seven and 54 one-half per centum of such wages, and if there are surviving more than 55 two children under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twen-56 ty-three if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accred-

1 ited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time attend-2 ance is certified by such institution, or a surviving child or children 3 of any age dependant blind or physically disabled, seventy-five per 4 centum of such wages share and share alike.] Upon statutory termination 5 of compensation payable to such children, the compensation of the 6 surviving spouse shall be increased to seventy-five per centum of such 7 wages [with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one sum, upon 8 remarriage]. Where the death occurs on or after September eleventh, two 9 thousand one, and the spouse is receiving survivors insurance benefits 10 under the social security act, the death benefits payable under this 11 section shall be reduced by five per centum of the spouse's share of the 12 survivors insurance benefits under the social security act for each ten 13 dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one hundred fifty 14 dollars; provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed fifty per 15 centum of said spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under 16 the social security act as set forth in table No. II in subdivision 17 two-a of this section.
18 S 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 19 have become a law.
