AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to criminal history review of child care providers

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 390-b of the social services law, 2     as added by chapter 416 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as 3     follows:
4     3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, after 5     reviewing any criminal history record information provided by the divi-
6     sion of criminal justice services, of an individual who is subject to a 7     criminal history record check pursuant to this section, the office of 8     children and family services and the provider shall take the following 9     actions:
10    (a) (i) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an 11    operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, 12    group family day care home, family day care home, or any person over the 13    age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a felony conviction [at 14    any time for a sex offense, crime against a child, or a crime involving 15    violence, or a felony conviction within the past five years for a drug-
16    related offense] FOR AN OFFENSE DEFINED IN ARTICLE ONE HUNDRED TWENTY, 17    ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-ONE, ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-FIVE, ONE HUNDRED THIRTY, ONE
18    HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE, TWO HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE OR TWO HUNDRED SIXTY-THREE 19    OF THE PENAL LAW, OR AN OFFENSE DEFINED IN SECTION 230.30 OR 230.32 OF 20    SUCH LAW, OR AN OFFENSE COMMITTED UNDER A FORMER PROVISION OF THE PENAL 21    LAW WHICH WOULD CONSTITUTE A VIOLATION OF THE AFORESAID ARTICLES OR 22    SECTIONS OF THE PENAL LAW OR ANY OFFENSE COMMITTED IN ANOTHER JURISDIC-23    TION WHICH WOULD CONSTITUTE A VIOLATION OF THE AFORESAID ARTICLES OR 24    SECTIONS OF THE PENAL LAW, the office of children and family services 25    shall deny the application [unless the office determines, in its

1 discretion, that approval of the application will not in any way jeopardize the health, safety or welfare of the children in the center, program or home]; or

2 (ii) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, group family day care home, family day care home, or any person over the age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a conviction for a crime other than one set forth in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the office of children and family services may deny the application, consistent with article twenty-three-A of the correction law; or

3 (iii) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, group family day care home, family day care home, or any other person over the age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a charge for any crime, the office of children and family services shall hold the application in abeyance until the charge is finally resolved.

4 (b) (i) Where the criminal history record of a current operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, group family day care home, family day care home, or any other person over the age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a conviction for a crime set forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children and family services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in the program. The office of children and family services shall deny, [limit, suspend,] revoke, reject or terminate a license or registration based on such a conviction[, unless the office determines, in its discretion, that continued operation of the center, program or home will not in any way jeopardize the health, safety or welfare of the children in the center, program or home];

5 (ii) Where the criminal history record of a current operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, group family day care home, family day care home, or any other person over the age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a conviction for a crime other than one set forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children and family services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in the program. The office may deny, limit, suspend, revoke, reject or terminate a license or registration based on such a conviction, consistent with article twenty-three-A of the correction law;

6 (iii) Where the criminal history record of a current operator of a child day care center, school age child care program, group family day care home, family day care home, or any other person over the age of eighteen residing in such a home, reveals a charge for any crime, the office of children and family services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in the program. The office may suspend a license or registration based on such a charge where necessary to protect the health and safety of the children in the program.

7 (c) (i) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an employee or volunteer at a child day care center or school age child care program reveals a conviction for a crime set forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children and family services shall direct the provider to deny the application [unless the office determines, in its discretion, that approval of the

1 application will not in any way jeopardize the health, safety or welfare
2 of the children in the center or program];

3 (ii) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an
4 employee or volunteer at a child day care center or school age child
5 care program reveals a conviction for a crime other than one set forth 6 in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of 7 children and family services may, consistent with article twenty-three-A 8 of the correction law, direct the provider to deny the application;

9 (iii) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an
10 employee or volunteer at a child day care center or school age child 11 care program reveals a charge for any crime, the office of children and 12 family services shall hold the application in abeyance until the charge 13 is finally resolved.

14 (d) (i) Where the criminal history record of a current employee or 15 volunteer at a child day care center or school age child care program
16 reveals a conviction for a crime set forth in subparagraph (i) of para-
17 graph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children and family
18 services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all 19 appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in 20 the program. The office shall direct the provider to terminate the 21 employee or volunteer based on such a conviction[, unless the office 22 determines, in its discretion, that the continued presence of the 23 employee or volunteer in the center or program will not in any way jeop-24 ardize the health, safety or welfare of the children in the center or 25 program];

26 (ii) Where the criminal history record of a current employee or volun-
27 teer at a child day care center or school age child care program reveals 28 a conviction for a crime other than one set forth in subparagraph (i) of 29 paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children and family
30 services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all 31 appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in 32 the program. The office may direct the provider to terminate the employ-33 ee or volunteer based on such a conviction, consistent with article
34 twenty-three-A of the correction law;

35 (iii) Where the criminal history record of a current employee or 36 volunteer at a child day care center or school age child care program
37 reveals a charge for any crime, the office of children and family
38 services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all 39 appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in 40 the program.

41 (e) (i) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an 42 employee, assistant or volunteer at a group family day care home or 43 family day care home reveals a conviction for a crime set forth in 44 subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of 45 children and family services shall direct the provider to deny the 46 application [unless the office determines, in its discretion, that 47 approval of the application will not in any way jeopardize the health, 48 safety or welfare of the children in the home];

49 (ii) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an 50 employee, assistant or volunteer at a group family day care home or 51 family day care home reveals a conviction for a crime other than one set 52 forth in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the 53 office of children and family services may, consistent with article 54 twenty-three-A of the correction law, direct the provider to deny the 55 application;

1 (iii) Where the criminal history record of an applicant to be an
2 employee, assistant or volunteer at a group family day care home or 3 family day care home reveals a charge for any crime, the office of chil-4 dren and family services shall hold the application in abeyance until 5 the charge is finally resolved.

6 (f) (i) Where the criminal history record of a current employee,
7 assistant or volunteer at a group family day care home or family day
8 care home reveals a conviction for a crime set forth in subparagraph (i)
9 of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children and family
10 services shall conduct a safety assessment of the program and take all 11 appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in 12 the home. The office of children and family services shall direct the 13 provider to terminate the employee, assistant or volunteer based on such 14 a conviction[, unless the office determines, in its discretion, that the 15 continued presence of the employee, assistant or volunteer in the home 16 will not in any way jeopardize the health, safety or welfare of the 17 children in the home];

18 (ii) Where the criminal history record of a current employee, assist-
19 ant or volunteer at a group family day care home or family day care home
20 reveals a conviction for a crime other than one set forth in subpara-
21 graph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision, the office of children 22 and family services shall conduct a safety assessment of the home and 23 take all appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the chil-24 dren in the home. The office may direct the provider to terminate the 25 employee, assistant or volunteer based on such a conviction, consistent 26 with article twenty-three-A of the correction law;

27 (iii) Where the criminal history record of a current employee, assist-
28 ant or volunteer at a group family day care home or family day care home
29 reveals a charge for any crime, the office of children and family
30 services shall conduct a safety assessment of the home and take all 31 appropriate steps to protect the health and safety of the children in 32 the home.

33 (g) Advise the provider that the individual has no criminal history
34 record.

35 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
