- S 3. The description in section two of this act is not intended to be a legal description but is intended to identify the land to be conveyed. As a condition of the transfer, the county of Monroe may submit to the commissioner of general services, for his or her approval, an accurate survey and description of the land to be conveyed, which may be used in the conveyance thereof.
- S 4. The office of general services shall not transfer or convey the aforesaid land unless application is made by the county of Monroe therefore within one year of the effective date of this act.
- The transfer and conveyance made pursuant to this act shall be subject to the following use restrictions and reverter:

A. 8842--A 3

(a) The land described in section two of this act shall be used exclusively for the purposes of operating and maintaining a Monroe county certified juvenile detention facility.

- (b) The county of Monroe shall own and operate a certified juvenile detention facility on the land for so long as any payment obligations are due from the county to the state under section one of this act. The county of Monroe shall not contract with a private entity to operate all or part of the certified detention facility on the county's behalf without prior written consent from the state office of children and family services. Any such private entity must be a not-for-profit organization. Such certified juvenile detention facility shall be subject to section 218-a of the county law, section 503 of the executive law and all other laws governing such facilities for, and the detention of, youths and, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, shall be a detention facility within the meaning of subdivision three of section 502 of the executive law.
- (c) In the event the premises are not accepted and/or used in accordance with such provisions, it shall revert to the state of New York.
- (d) The conveyance of the land described in this act shall contain covenants and restrictions consistent with the provisions set forth in subdivisions (a) through (c) of this section.
 - S 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
