2013-2014 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

April 19, 2013

Introduced by Sen. AVELLA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to enacting the "small business survival act"

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "small business survival act".

3 S 2. Legislative intent. The legislature finds that the small business sector of the city of New York remains vulnerable at a time when New 5 York city is more dependent than ever on small business for job growth and revenues. The New York city commercial rental market has been negatively influenced by speculators for such an extended period of time 7 that the interest of small businesses and job creation, and the broader 8 9 general economic interest of the city, are being harmed. An unacceptable number of established small businesses are being forced out of business 10 solely as a result of the commercial lease renewal process. Whereby a 11 12 breakdown has taken place in normal processes of bargaining and freedom 13 contract has become an illusory concept during the commercial lease 14 renewal process. The current commercial rental market results in unjust, unreasonable, and oppressive leases for the payment of rent for 15 commercial space in New York city. Landlords continue to exact 16 17 agreements from tenants under stress of prevailing market conditions and unequal bargaining power, without any tenants' rights to allow for 18 bargaining in good faith to arrive at fair and reasonable lease terms. 19 20 absence of legal protection for the interests of commercial tenants 21 in the lease renewal process has unnecessarily accelerated the closing 22 small businesses and resulted in lost jobs, lost tax revenues caused 23 higher inflation and cost of living rates, decreased job growth opportunities for New Yorkers and community instability. It is the intent of 25 the legislature, through this legislation, to give small businesses some rights in the commercial lease renewal process, and therefore, a measure of predictability of future costs through a two-step procedure of mediation and, if necessary, arbitration for negotiating commercial lease renewals. This process would create a fair negotiating environment, which would result in more reasonable and fair lease terms to help small businesses survive and encourage job retention and growth in the city of New York
