Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT in relation to candidates for certificates in the classroom teaching service

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section 1. 1. No candidate for an initial certificate in the classroom
2 teaching service shall be required to take the edTPA portion of the New 3 York State teacher certificate examination and no candidate shall be 4 required to achieve satisfactory levels of performance on the edTPA
5 portion of the New York State teacher certificate examinations in order
6 to receive such certificate until April 30, 2015.
- 7 2. For candidates that have not received an initial certificate in the 8 classroom teaching service by April 30, 2014, the state education
9 department shall require that such candidate achieve satisfactory levels 10 of performance on the elementary or secondary assessment of teaching 11 skills-written test; academic literary skills test; educating all 12 students test; and the content specialty test. Provided that the 13 requirements of this subdivision shall not apply after April 30, 2015.
- 14 3. Any candidate for a certificate in the classroom teaching service 15 that has achieved a satisfactory level of performance on the edTPA shall 16 be deemed to have met the requirements of the elementary or secondary 17 assessment of teaching skills-written test pursuant to subdivision two 18 of this section.
- 19 4. The state education department is authorized and required to take 20 all necessary actions to expeditiously establish additional test dates 21 for the elementary assessment of teaching skills-written test and 22 secondary assessment of teaching skills-written test.
- 23 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to 24 have been in full force and effect on and after April 1, 2014.
