Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Schimminger)
-- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the New York franchise act

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Section 680 of the general business law, as added by chap-2 ter 730 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:
3 S 680. Legislative findings and declaration of policy. [1. The legis-4 lature hereby finds and declares that the widespread sale of franchises 5 is a relatively new form of business which has created numerous problems 6 in New York. New York residents have suffered substantial losses where 7 the franchisor or his representative has not provided full and complete 8 information regarding the franchisor-franchisee relationship, the 9 details of the contract between the franchisor and franchisee, the prior 10 business experience of the franchisor, and other factors relevant to the 11 franchise offered for sale.
12 2.] It is hereby determined and declared that the offer and sale of 13 franchises, as defined in this article, is a matter affected with a 14 public interest and subject to the supervision of the state, for the 15 purpose of providing prospective franchisees [and potential franchise 16 investors] with material details of the franchise offering so that they 17 may participate in the franchise system in a manner that may avoid 18 detriment to the public interest and benefit the commerce and industry 19 of the state. Further, it is the intent of this law to prohibit the sale 20 of franchises where such sale would lead to fraud or a likelihood that 21 the franchisor's promises would not be fulfilled.
22 S 2. Section 681 of the general business law, as added by chapter 730 23 of the laws of 1980, and paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 as amended by 24 chapter 87 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:
25 S 681. Definitions. 1. "Advertisement" includes any [written or print-26 ed communication, or any communication by means of recorded telephone 27 messages or spoken on radio, television, or similar communications 28 media, published in connection with an offer or sale of a franchise]

Whenever the department shall believe from evidence satisfactory to it that any person has engaged in or is engaged in or is about to engage in any practice or transaction heretofore referred to as and declared to be an unlawful or a fraudulent practice, it may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the people of the state of New York against such person and any other person theretofore concerned in or in any way participating in such unlawful or fraudulent practice, to enjoin such person or persons from continuing such unlawful and fraudulent practice or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof or, if the department should believe from such evidence that such person actually has or is engaged in any such unlawful or fraudulent practice, it may include in such action an application to enjoin permanently such person and such other person as may have been or may be concerned with or in any way participating in such unlawful or fraudulent practice, from selling or offering for sale within or from this state as franchisor, franchise [sales agent, franchise salesman] SELLER, or a principal EXECUTIVE OFFICER OR DIRECTOR thereof, any franchise offered or to be offered or sold, or from continuing any such practice. In said action an order or a judgment may be entered awarding the relief applied for or so much thereof as the court may deem proper. Upon a showing by the department in its application for a permanent injunction hereunder that the defendant named in the action or an officer thereof has refused to be sworn or to be examined or to answer a material question or to produce a book or paper relevant to the inquiry when duly ordered to do so by the officer or judge duly conducting an inquiry into the subject matter forming the basis of the application for such injunction, such refusal shall be prima facie proof that such defendant is or has engaged in an unlawful or fraudulent practice as set forth in such application and a permanent injunction may issue from the supreme court without further showing by the department. In an action brought under this section the court may award to the plaintiff a sum not in excess of ten thousand dollars for each defendant as an additional allowance.

2. Upon a showing by the department, in an application for an injunction, that any person engaged in the offer or sale of a franchise in this state has ever been convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction in any state or county of any felony or of any other criminal offense by any such court, whether or not constituting a felony, involving franchises, securities or subdivided land, the supreme court after a hearing may issue a permanent injunction awarding the relief applied for, or so much thereof as the court may deem proper, against such person shown to have been so convicted, in the form and manner provided for in subdivision one of this section in the case of one who actually has or is engaged in any unlawful or fraudulent practice.

3. If a franchise is offered or sold within the state of New York by a non-resident person and such non-resident person has not filed pursuant to laws heretofore or hereafter existing the designation of a person upon whom process against him or it may be served or the designation of the secretary of state as such person, pursuant to section thirteen hundred four of the business corporation law or other laws heretofore or hereafter existing, or in lieu thereof, an instrument in writing duly

1 acknowledged and filed in the office of the secretary of state designat-2 ing the secretary of state as the person upon whom may be served any 3 subpoena, subpoena duces tecum or other process directed to such non-re-4 sident person and issued in any investigation, examination or proceeding 5 pending or about to be instituted under and pursuant to the provisions 6 of this article, the department may serve a notice upon such non-resi-7 dent person by mailing the same in a securely sealed postpaid wrapper 8 addressed to such non-resident person at its or his last known place of 9 business or residence, and may in such notice require that such non-re-10 sident person furnish a written statement under oath, as required in 11 said notice, giving the information therein specified relating to the 12 franchise offered, to be offered or sold in the state of New York by 13 such non-resident person or, in the alternative, that such non-resident 14 person shall appear within a reasonable time from the date of mailing 15 such notice at a designated place within this state for examination and 16 shall produce at the time and place of such examination such books and 17 papers of such non-resident person as may be designated in such notice.

18 If such non-resident person shall fail to appear pursuant thereto or 19 to produce the books and papers required thereby to be produced, or 20 shall refuse to submit to examination or to answer any proper question, 21 the proof of such failure or refusal shall constitute prima facie 22 evidence that the offer or sale of a franchise by such non-resident 23 person constitutes a fraudulent practice and may in the discretion of 24 the court be treated as a sufficient basis for a permanent injunction 25 against the continuance of such fraudulent practice.

26 4. In any action brought by the department as provided in this arti-27 cle, the court at any stage of the proceedings may appoint a receiver of 28 any and all property derived by the defendant or defendants or any of 29 them by means of any such unlawful or fraudulent practice, including 30 also all property with which such property has been commingled if such 31 property cannot be identified in kind because of such commingling, 32 together with any or all books of account and papers relating to the 33 same. The judgment entered in such action may provide that such receiver 34 shall take title to any or all such property and books of account and 35 papers relating to the same and liquidate such property or any part 36 thereof for the benefit of all persons intervening in the said action 37 and establishing an interest in such property. The judgment may also 38 provide that all such property, the title to or interest in which has 39 not been established in such action by intervenors or otherwise by due 40 process to be in a person or persons other than defendant or defendants, 41 shall be returned to the defendant or defendants as their interest may 42 appear. Such receiver shall be subject to all the duties of receivers in 43 civil actions as far as practicable except that such provisions relating 44 to commissions or compensation of receivers shall not be applicable to 45 receivers appointed pursuant to this section, but such commissions or 46 compensations shall be fixed by the court in any amount which it may 47 determine to be just and equitable. In any action brought by the depart-48 ment as provided in this article the court may grant such other and 49 further relief as may be proper.

50 5. Whenever the department has determined to commence an action under 51 this article, it may present to any justice of the supreme court, before 52 beginning such action, an application in writing for an order directing 53 the person or persons mentioned in the application to appear before the 54 justice of the supreme court or referee designated in such order and 55 answer such questions as may be put to them or to any of them, or to 56 produce such papers, documents and books concerning the alleged unlawful

1 or fraudulent practices to which the action which the department has 2 determined to bring relates, and it shall be the duty of the justice of 3 the supreme court to whom such application for the order is made to 4 grant such application. The application for such order may simply show 5 upon information and belief that the testimony of such person or persons 6 is material and necessary. The provisions of the civil practice law and 7 rules, relating to an application for an order for the examination of 8 witnesses before the commencement of an action and the method of 9 proceeding on such examination, shall not apply except as herein 10 prescribed. The order shall be granted by the justice of the supreme 11 court to whom the application has been made with such preliminary 12 injunction or stay as may appear to such justice to be proper and expe-13 dient and shall specify the time when and place where the witnesses are 14 required to appear. The justice or referee may adjourn such examination 15 from time to time and witnesses must attend accordingly. The testimony 16 of each witness must be subscribed by him and must be filed in the 17 office of the clerk of the county in which such order for examination is 18 filed.

19 6. The order for such examination must be signed by the justice making 20 it, and service of a copy thereof with an endorsement by the department 21 to the effect that the person named therein is required to appear and be 22 examined at the time and place before the justice and referee specified 23 in such endorsement, shall be sufficient notice for the attendance of 24 witnesses. Such endorsement may contain a clause requiring such person 25 to produce at such examination all books, papers and documents in his 26 possession or under his control relating to the subject of such examina-27 tion. The order shall be served upon the person named in [the] SUCH 28 endorsement [aforesaid] by delivering to and leaving with it or him a 29 certified copy thereof, endorsed as above provided, subject to the 30 payment of witness fees and mileage as and when provided to be paid by 31 paragraph (b) of subdivision four of section six hundred eighty-eight of 32 this article in connection with attendance pursuant to subpoenas author-33 ized to be issued under [said] SUCH section. Service of such an order 34 may also be served under section six hundred eighty-six of this article 35 in cases falling thereunder.

36 7. The referee appointed as provided in this article possesses all the 37 powers and is subject to all the duties of a referee appointed in a 38 civil action, so far as practicable, and may punish for contempt a 39 witness duly served with the papers as prescribed in this article for 40 non-attendance or refusal to be sworn or to testify or to produce books, 41 papers and documents according to the direction of [the] SUCH endorse-42 ment [aforesaid] in the same manner and to the same extent as a referee 43 to hear, try and determine an issue of fact or law.

44 8. Any person against whom a permanent injunction has been granted 45 under the provisions of this article may apply to the supreme court at 46 any time upon at least sixty days notice to the department for an order 47 dissolving such injunction or modifying the same upon such terms and 48 conditions as the court deems necessary or desirable. Such application 49 for dissolution or modification of such injunction shall contain a reci-50 tation of the facts and circumstances which caused the granting of the 51 injunction; the occupation and employment of the person making the 52 application and his financial remuneration therefrom since the time the 53 injunction was granted; his net worth at the time of the application and 54 the source thereof; together with any other facts bearing upon the 55 reasonableness of the application and the character of the applicant as 56 may enable the court to issue an order that will properly dispose of 1 such application in the interest of justice. A copy of such application 2 together with copies of any other papers in support thereof shall be 3 served upon the department at least sixty days prior to the return date 4 thereof. In addition thereto the applicant shall file with the court a 5 good and sufficient surety bond in the sum of one thousand dollars guar-6 anteeing that he will pay all costs and expenses of an investigation by 7 the department of such applicant and the statements and claims alleged 8 in the application together with any further investigation which the 9 department may deem necessary or desirable to determine whether it 10 should consent to the application, oppose the same, or make such other 11 recommendations to the court as in its opinion are desirable to be 12 included in any modification of such injunction. Should it appear in the 13 course of such investigation by the department that said sum is not 14 sufficient, the department may apply to the court by usual notice of 15 motion or order to show cause for an increase in the amount of security 16 or further surety bond necessary to fully pay all of the costs of the 17 investigation and the court may require such further bond as the situ-18 ation requires to fully pay the costs and expenses of the investigation.

19 Upon the completion of such investigation, the department may file an 20 answer to such application setting forth such facts as are pertinent to 21 the determination by the court of the matter before it and whether said 22 injunction should be dissolved, modified or continued in whole or in 23 part and what conditions, if any, shall be attached to any dissolution 24 or modification of said injunction. After a hearing upon such applica-25 tion and after any further investigation, proof or testimony which the 26 court may desire has been offered, or at any adjourned dates thereof, 27 the court may make a final order dissolving the permanent injunction or 28 modifying the same upon such terms and conditions as in its opinion are 29 just and desirable, or in its discretion may deny the application. Such 30 order shall contain a direction that the applicant pay to the department 31 the costs and expenses of the investigation in connection with the 32 proceeding, and any judgment entered thereon may be enforced directly 33 against the surety on the bond. The court shall grant no temporary or 34 other relief from the injunction in force pending a final determination 35 of such application. No application under this subdivision shall be 36 entertained:

37 (a) in any case where the applicant has been convicted of a felony or 38 a crime that would be a felony if committed in the state of New York 39 since the issuance of the injunction, nor

40 (b) in any case where the injunction was granted incident to a felony, 41 or the applicant has been convicted at any time of any felony involving 42 franchises which are the subject matter of this article. Nor shall 43 anything contained in this subdivision be construed to deny to or inter-44 fere with the power of the department to bring any other action or 45 proceeding, civil or criminal, against the applicant at any time.

46 9. The provisions of the civil practice law and rules shall apply to 47 all actions brought under this article except as herein otherwise 48 provided.

49 S 11. Section 691 of the general business law, as added by chapter 730
50 of the laws of 1980, subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 86 of the laws
51 of 1981, is amended to read as follows:

52 S 691. Civil remedies. 1. A person who offers or sells a franchise in 53 violation of section six hundred eighty-three, six hundred eighty-four 54 or six hundred eighty-seven of this article is liable to the person 55 purchasing the franchise [for damages and, if such violation is willful 56 and material,] for rescission, with interest [at six percent per year]

1 from the date of purchase, [and] AT AN ANNUAL INTEREST RATE SET FORTH IN 2 OR DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULES OR REGULATIONS PROMULGATED BY THE 3 DEPARTMENT, AND IF SUCH VIOLATION IS WILLFUL AND MATERIAL, FOR DAMAGES,
4 IN EACH INSTANCE ALONG WITH reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

5 2. A person may not file or maintain suit under this section if the 6 franchisee or such person received a written offer before suit, and at a 7 time when he owned the franchise, to refund the consideration paid
8 together with interest at [six percent per year] AN ANNUAL RATE SET
9 FORTH IN OR DETERMINED IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULES OR REGULATIONS PROMUL-10 GATED BY THE DEPARTMENT from the date of payment, less the amount of 11 income earned by the franchisee from the franchise, conditioned only 12 upon tender by the person of all items received by him for the consider-13 ation and not sold, and failed to accept the offer within thirty days of 14 its receipt, provided that the offering documents are submitted to the 15 department for approval at least ten business days prior to submission 16 to the franchisee. The rescission offer shall recite the provisions of 17 this section. If the franchise involves a substantial building or 18 substantial equipment or fixtures and a significant period of time has 19 elapsed since the sale of the franchise to the franchisee, the depart-20 ment in approving a rescission offer may approve an equitable offer 21 recognizing depreciation, amortization, and other factors which bear 22 upon the value of the franchise being returned to the franchisor. Noth-23 ing in this subdivision shall prohibit settlement of any dispute arising 24 under or involving claims based on this chapter, with or without 25 approval of the department.

26 3. A person who directly or indirectly controls a person liable under 27 this article, a partner in a firm so liable, a principal executive offi-28 cer or director of a corporation so liable, a person occupying a similar 29 status or performing similar functions, and an employee of a person so 30 liable, who materially aids in the act of transaction constituting the 31 violation, is also liable jointly and severally with and to the same 32 extent as the controlled person, partnership, corporation or employer.
33 It shall be a defense to any action based upon such liability that the 34 defendant did not know or could not have known by the exercise of due 35 diligence the facts upon which the action is predicated.

36 4. An action shall not be maintained to enforce a liability created 37 under this section unless brought before the expiration of three years 38 after the act or transaction constituting the violation.

39 5. Except as explicitly provided in this article, civil liability in 40 favor of any private party shall not arise against a person by impli-41 cation from or as a result of the violation of a provision of this arti-
42 cle or a rule, regulation or order hereunder. Nothing in this article 43 shall limit a liability which may exist by virtue of any other statute 44 or under common law if this article were not in effect.

45 S 12. Section 694 of the general business law, as added by chapter 730
46 of the laws of 1980, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 61 of the laws
47 of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

48 S 694. Administration. [1. The department shall charge and collect the 49 fees fixed by this section.

50 (a) The fee for filing an application for registration of an offering 51 prospectus under subdivision two of section six hundred eighty-three of 52 this article is seven hundred fifty dollars.

53 (b) The fee for filing an amendment to any registered offering pros-54 pectus filed under subdivision two, nine or thirteen of section six 55 hundred eighty-three of this article is one hundred fifty dollars.

1 (c) The fee for filing a franchise agent's application under subdivi-2 sion thirteen of section six hundred eighty-three of this article is one 3 hundred fifty dollars.
4 2.] The department may from time to time make, amend, and rescind such 5 rules, forms and regulations as are necessary to carry out the 6 provisions of this article, including rules and forms governing applica-7 tions and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this 8 article, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the 9 provisions of this article.
10 S 13. This act shall take effect immediately.
