 shall promulgate and forward to the appropriate agencies a list of such LOCAL food products, and shall in addition ascertain those periods of time each year that those LOCAL food products are available in sufficient quantities for competitive purchasing and shall forward such information to purchasing agencies. The commissioner of agriculture and markets shall update such list as often as is deemed by him or her to be necessary.

- c. (i) Prior to issuing a solicitation for such food products, purchasing agencies shall advise the commissioner of agriculture and markets of the quantities of each food product on the list promulgated by the commissioner of agriculture and markets to fulfill that agency's purchasing needs.
- (ii) The commissioner of agriculture and markets will then make a determination of whether those products required by the purchasing agency are available in sufficient quantities to satisfy the purchasing agency's requirements.
- (iii) Upon a determination by the commissioner of agriculture and markets that the food products required by the purchasing agency are available in sufficient quantities to fulfill the agency's purchasing needs, the purchasing agency may include in its solicitation a requirement that all or some of those food products are [grown, produced or harvested in New York state, or that any processing of such food products take place in facilities located within New York state] FOOD PRODUCTS, AS SUCH TERM IS DEFINED IN SUBDIVISION SIX OF SECTION TWO THE AGRICULTURE AND MARKETS LAW. THE PURCHASING AGENCY MAY THEN GIVE PREFERENCE TO PROCURING LOCAL FOOD PRODUCTS, IF THE PRODUCTS FOOD PRODUCTS THAT ARE NOT GROWN, MORE TEN PERCENT MORE THAN THAN PRODUCED, HARVESTED, AND/OR PROCESSED WITHIN THIS STATE.
- (iv) Upon a determination by the commissioner of agriculture and markets that such food products are not available in sufficient quantities to fulfill the agency's purchasing needs, the purchasing agency shall issue a solicitation that does not require that all or some of those food products are [grown, produced or harvested in New York state, or that any processing of such food products take place in facilities located within New York state] LOCAL FOOD PRODUCTS, AS SUCH TERM IS DEFINED IN SUBDIVISION SIX OF SECTION TWO OF THE AGRICULTURE AND MARKETS LAW. In such cases, the purchasing agency may include such requirements in the next contract for such food products that is let if at such time those food products are available in sufficient quantities. If at that time, those food products are not available in sufficient quantities, the requirement shall again be waived until such time as the products are available.
- (v) In the event that the purchasing agency receives no offers that meet the agency's requirement that all or some of the food products are [grown, produced or harvested in New York state, or that any processing of such food products take place in facilities located within New York state] LOCAL FOOD PRODUCTS, AS SUCH TERM IS DEFINED IN SUBDIVISION SIX OF SECTION TWO OF THE AGRICULTURE AND MARKETS LAW, it may waive the provisions of this subdivision and award a contract in accordance with other applicable statutes. In addition, if the commissioners of agriculture and markets, economic development and any such individual agency shall agree as to the deleterious economic impact of specifications requiring such purchases, such agencies may waive the provisions of this subdivision for such purchases.
