IN ASSEMBLY

January 16, 2014

Introduced by M. of A. GUNTHER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Mental Health

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to enacting the "people first act of 2014"

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "people first act of 2014".

3 Legislative findings. It is the intent of the legislature to S 2. 4 ensure that individuals with developmental disabilities who utilize 5 long-term care services under the medical assistance program and other long-term care related benefit programs administered by the state have 6 7 meaningful and reliable access to a reasonable array of community-based 8 and institutional program options and to ensure the well-being of indi-9 viduals with developmental disabilities, taking into account their 10 informed and expressed choices. Furthermore, the legislature declares 11 it is the policy of the state to ensure that the clinical, habilithat tative, and social needs of individuals with developmental disabilities 12 who choose to reside in integrated community-based settings can have 13 14 those needs met in integrated community-based settings. In order to 15 meaningfully comply with this policy, the state must have an understand-16 ing of the existing capacity in integrated community-based settings, 17 including direct support professionals and licensed professionals, such as physicians, dentists, nurse practitioners, nurses, and psychiatrists, 18 19 as well as residential capacity to provide for these needs.

is further the intent of the legislature to support the satisfac-20 Ιt 21 tion and success of consumers through the delivery of quality services 22 and supports. Evaluation of the services that consumers receive is a key 23 aspect to the service system. Utilizing the information that consumers 24 and their families provide about such services in a reliable and mean-25 ingful way is also critical to enable the commissioner of developmental 26 disabilities to assess the performance of the state's developmental 27 services system and to improve services for consumers in the future. To that end, the commissioner of developmental disabilities shall conduct a 28
