21 entity pursuant to subdivision two of this section, the separate busi-
22 ness entity will be considered a commercial goods transportation 23 contractor subject to all the provisions of this article in regard to 24 the classification of individuals performing services for it.

25 S 862-c. Notice to persons receiving remuneration from commercial 26 goods transportation contractors and commercial goods transportation
27 subcontractors. 1. Every commercial goods transportation contractor
28 shall post in a prominent and accessible place on the site where commer-
29 cial goods transportation activity is conducted a legible statement, 30 provided by the commissioner, that describes the responsibility of inde-31 pendent contractors to pay taxes required by state and federal law, the 32 rights of employees to workers' compensation, unemployment benefits, 33 minimum wage, overtime and other federal and state workplace
34 protections, and the protections against retaliation and the penalties
35 in this article if the contractor fails to properly classify an individ-
36 ual as an employee. This notice shall also contain contact information 37 for individuals to file complaints or inquire with the commissioner 38 about employment classification status. This information shall be 39 provided in English, Spanish or other languages required by the commis-
40 sioner. [The posted statement shall be constructed of materials capable 41 of withstanding adverse weather conditions.]

42 2. Within thirty days of the effective date of this article, the 43 commissioner shall create the notice described in subdivision one of 44 this section and post the notice on the department's website for down-45 loading by commercial goods transportation contractors.

46 3. Commercial goods transportation contractors who violate this 47 section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand five 48 hundred dollars for a first violation, and up to five thousand dollars 49 for a subsequent violation within a five year period.
