1. Social services districts shall make available vocational educational training and educational activities. Such activities may include 3 need not be limited to, high school education or education designed to prepare a participant for a high school equivalency certificate, 5 basic and remedial education, education in English proficiency, EDUCA-6 TION IN FINANCIAL LITERACY AND PERSONAL FINANCE PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH 7 SUBDIVISION ONE OF SECTION THREE HUNDRED THIRTY-SIX OF THIS TITLE, and no more than a total of four years of post-secondary education (or the part-time equivalent). Educational activities pursuant to 8 9 10 this section may be offered with any of the following providers which 11 meet the performance or assessment standards established in regulations 12 by the commissioner for such providers: a community college, trade school, registered business school, or a two-year or four-year 13 14 college; provided, however, that such post-secondary education must be 15 necessary to the attainment of the participant's individual employment 16 goal as set forth in the employability plan and such goal must relate 17 directly to obtaining useful employment in a recognized occupation. When 18 making any assignment to any educational activity pursuant to this subdivision, such assignment shall be permitted only to the extent that 19 20 such assignment is consistent with the individual's assessment and 21 employment plan goals in accordance with sections three hundred thirty-22 five and three hundred thirty-five-a of this title and shall require that the individual maintains satisfactory academic progress and hourly 23 participation is documented consistent with federal and state require-24 25 ments. For purposes of this provision "satisfactory academic progress" shall mean having a cumulative C average, or its equivalent, as deter-26 mined by the academic institution. The requirement to maintain satisfac-27 tory academic progress may be waived if done so by the academic institu-28 29 tion and the social services district based on undue hardship caused by 30 event such as a personal injury or illness of the student, the death of a relative of the student or other extenuating circumstances. 31 32 enrollment in post-secondary education beyond a twelve month period must 33 combined with no less than twenty hours of participation averaged weekly in paid employment or work activities or community service when 34 35 paid employment is not available. 36

S 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that the commissioner of temporary and disability assistance is immediately authorized and directed to promulgate, amend and/or repeal any rules and regulations that may be necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date.
