I N A S S E M B L Y

January 12, 2015

Introduced by M. of A. GOTTFRIED, DINOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to disposition of human remains

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section 1. Section 4201 of the public health law, as amended by chap-2 ter 76 of the laws of 2006, paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by 3 chapter 401 of the laws of 2007, paragraph (e) of subdivision 2 as added
4 by section 1 of part B of chapter 491 of the laws of 2012, subdivision 5 4-a as added by chapter 348 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 6 follows:
7 S 4201. Disposition of remains; responsibility therefor. 1. As used in 8 this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings, 9 unless the context otherwise requires:
10 (a) "Cremation" means the incineration of human remains.
11 (b) "Disposition" means the care, disposal, transportation, burial, 12 cremation or embalming of the body of a deceased person, and associated 13 measures.
14 (c) "Domestic partner" means a person who, with respect to another 15 person:
16 (i) is formally a party in a domestic partnership or similar relation-17 ship with the other person, entered into pursuant to the laws of the 18 United States or any state, local or foreign jurisdiction, or registered 19 as the domestic partner of the person with any registry maintained by 20 the employer of either party or any state, municipality, or foreign 21 jurisdiction; or 22 (ii) is formally recognized as a beneficiary or covered person under 23 the other person's employment benefits or health insurance; or 24 (iii) is dependent or mutually interdependent on the other person for 25 support, as evidenced by the totality of the circumstances indicating a

1 mutual intent to be domestic partners including but not limited to:
2 common ownership or joint leasing of real or personal property; common 3 householding, shared income or shared expenses; children in common;
4 signs of intent to marry or become domestic partners under subparagraph 5 (i) or (ii) of this paragraph; or the length of the personal relation-6 ship of the persons.

7 Each party to a domestic partnership shall be considered to be the 8 domestic partner of the other party. "Domestic partner" shall not 9 include a person who is related to the other person by blood in a manner 10 that would bar marriage to the other person in New York state. "Domestic 11 partner" shall also not include any person who is less than eighteen 12 years of age or who is the adopted child of the other person or who is 13 related by blood in a manner that would bar marriage in New York state 14 to a person who is the lawful spouse of the other person.

15 (d) "Person" means a natural person eighteen years of age or older.

16 2. (a) The following persons in descending priority shall have the 17 right to control the disposition of the remains of such decedent:

18 (i) the person designated in a written instrument executed pursuant to 19 [the provisions of] this section;

20 (ii) the decedent's surviving spouse;

21 (ii-a) the decedent's surviving domestic partner;

22 (iii) any of the decedent's surviving children eighteen years of age 23 or older;

24 (iv) either of the decedent's surviving parents;

25 (v) any of the decedent's surviving siblings eighteen years of age or 26 older;

27 (vi) a guardian appointed pursuant to article seventeen or seventeen-A 28 of the surrogate's court procedure act or article eighty-one of the 29 mental hygiene law;

30 (vii) any person eighteen years of age or older who would be entitled 31 to share in the estate of the decedent as specified in section 4-1.1 of 32 the estates, powers and trusts law, with the person closest in relation-33 ship having the highest priority;

34 (viii) a duly appointed fiduciary of the estate of the decedent;

35 (ix) a close friend or relative who is reasonably familiar with the 36 decedent's wishes, including the decedent's religious or moral beliefs, 37 when no one higher on this list is reasonably available, willing, or 38 competent to act, provided that such person has executed a written 39 statement pursuant to subdivision seven of this section; or

40 (x) a chief fiscal officer of a county or a public administrator 41 appointed pursuant to article twelve or thirteen of the surrogate's 42 court procedure act, or any other person acting on behalf of the de-43 cent, provided that such person has executed a written statement pursu-44 ant to subdivision seven of this section.

45 (b) If a person designated to control the disposition of a decedent's 46 remains, pursuant to this subdivision, is not reasonably available, 47 unwilling or not competent to serve, and such person is not expected to 48 become reasonably available, willing or competent, then those persons of 49 equal priority and, if there be none, those persons of the next succeed-50 ing priority shall have the right to control the disposition of the 51 decedent's remains.

52 (c) The person in control of disposition, pursuant to this section, 53 shall faithfully carry out the directions of the decedent to the extent 54 lawful and practicable, including consideration of the financial capaci-55 ty of the decedent's estate and other resources made available for 56 disposition of the remains. The person in control of disposition shall 1 also dispose of the decedent in a manner appropriate to the moral and 2 individual beliefs and wishes of the decedent provided that such beliefs 3 and wishes do not conflict with the directions of the decedent. The 4 person in control of disposition may seek to recover any costs related 5 to the disposition from the fiduciary of the decedent's estate in 6 accordance with section eighteen hundred eleven of the surrogate's court 7 procedure act.

8 (d) No funeral director, undertaker, embalmer or no person with an 9 interest in, or who is an employee of any funeral firm, cemetery organ-10 ization or business operating a crematory, columbarium or any other 11 business, who also controls the disposition of remains in accordance 12 with this section, shall receive compensation or otherwise receive 13 financial benefit for disposing of the remains of a decedent.

14 (e) No person who: (1) at the time of the decedent's death, was the 15 subject of an order of protection protecting the decedent; or (2) has 16 been arrested or charged with any crime set forth in article one hundred 17 twenty-five of the penal law as a result of any action allegedly causal-18 ly related to the death of the decedent shall have the right to control 19 the disposition of the remains of the decedent. However, the application 20 of this paragraph in a particular case may be waived or modified in the 21 interest of justice by order of (i) the court that issued the order of 22 protection or in which the criminal action against the person is pend-23 ing, or a superior court in which an action or proceeding under the 24 domestic relations law or the family court act between the person and 25 the decedent was pending at the time of the decedent's death, or (ii) if 26 proceeding in that court would cause inappropriate delay, a court in a 27 special proceeding.

28 3. The written instrument referred to in paragraph (a) of subdivision
29 two of this section may be, BUT IS NOT REQUIRED TO BE, in substantially 30 the following form[, and]. IT must be signed and dated by the decedent 31 [and the agent] and [properly] witnessed BY ONE WITNESS WHO MUST BE

12 4. [(a)] In the absence of a written instrument made pursuant to 13 subdivision three of this section, the designation of a person for the 14 disposition of one's remains or directions for the disposition of one's 15 remains in a will executed pursuant to the laws of the state of New York 16 [prior to the effective date of this section], or otherwise executed 17 pursuant to the laws of a jurisdiction outside the state of New York, 18 shall be: [(i) considered reflective of the intent of the decedent] (A) 19 DEEMED TO BE A WRITTEN INSTRUMENT EXECUTED PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION with 20 respect to the disposition of the decedent's remains; and [(ii)] (B) 21 superseded by a written instrument subsequently executed pursuant to 22 subdivision three of this section, or by any other subsequent act by the 23 decedent evidencing a specific intent to supersede the designation or 24 direction in such a will with respect to the disposition of the 25 decedent's remains. All actions taken reasonably and in good faith based 26 upon such authorizations and directions regarding the disposition of 27 one's remains in such a will shall be deemed valid regardless of whether 28 such a will is later probated or subsequently declared invalid.

29 [(b)] In the absence of a written instrument made pursuant to subdivi-30 sion three of this section, the designation of a person for the disposi-31 tion of one's remains or directions for the disposition of one's remains 32 in a will executed pursuant to the laws of the state of New York on or 33 after the effective date of this section, shall be considered a 34 reflection of the intent of the decedent with respect to the disposition 35 of the decedent's remains, provided that the person who represents that 36 he or she is entitled to control the disposition of remains of the dece-37 dent has complied with subdivision five and paragraph (a) of subdivision 38 seven of this section and signed a written statement in accordance with 39 paragraph (b) of subdivision seven of this section.]

40 4-a. A written instrument under this section may limit the disposition 41 of remains agent's authority to consent to organ or tissue donation or 42 designate another person to do so, under article forty-three of this 43 chapter. Failure to state wishes or instruction shall not be construed 44 to imply a wish not to donate.

45 5. A written instrument executed under this section shall be revoked 46 upon the execution by the decedent of a subsequent written instrument, 47 or by any other subsequent act by the decedent evidencing a specific 48 intent to revoke the prior written instrument [and directions].
49 DIRECTIONS on disposition and agent designations in a [will] WRITTEN 50 INSTRUMENT made pursuant to [subdivision three of] this section shall be 51 superseded by a subsequently executed [will or] written instrument made

1 pursuant to this section, or by any other subsequent act of the decedent 2 evidencing a specific intent to supersede the direction or designation.
3 The designation of the decedent's spouse or domestic partner as an agent 4 in control of disposition of remains shall be revoked upon the divorce 5 or legal separation of the decedent and spouse, or termination of the 6 domestic partnership, unless the decedent specified in writing other-7 wise.

8 6. A person acting reasonably and in good faith, shall not be subject 9 to any civil liability for:

10 (a) representing himself or herself to be the person in control of a 11 decedent's disposition;

12 (b) disposing of a decedent's remains if done with the reasonable 13 belief that such disposal is consistent with this section; or 14 (c) identifying a decedent.

15 7. No cemetery organization, business operating a crematory or colum-16 barium, funeral director, undertaker, embalmer, or funeral firm shall be 17 held liable for actions taken reasonably and in good faith to carry out 18 the written directions of a decedent as stated in [a will or in] a writ-
19 ten instrument executed pursuant to this section. No cemetery organiza-20 tion, business operating a crematory or columbarium, funeral director, 21 undertaker, embalmer or funeral firm shall be held liable for actions 22 taken reasonably and in good faith to carry out the directions of a 23 person who represents that he or she is entitled to control of the 24 disposition of remains, provided that such action is taken only after 25 requesting and receiving A written statement that such person:

26 (a) is the designated agent of the decedent designated in a [will or] 27 written instrument executed pursuant to this section; or

28 (b) that he or she has no knowledge that the decedent executed a writ-29 ten instrument pursuant to this section [or a will] containing 30 directions for the disposition of his or her remains and that such 31 person is the person having priority under subdivision two of this 32 section.

33 8. Every dispute UNDER THIS SECTION relating to the disposition of the 34 remains of a decedent shall be resolved by a court of competent juris-35 diction pursuant to a special proceeding under article four of the civil 36 practice law and rules. No person providing services relating to the 37 disposition of the remains of a decedent shall be held liable for 38 refusal to provide such services, when control of the disposition of 39 such remains is contested, until such person receives a court order or 40 other form of notification signed by all parties or their legal repre-41 sentatives to the dispute establishing such control.

42 9. This section does not supersede, alter or abridge any provision of 43 section four hundred fifty-three of the general business law. In the 44 event of a conflict or ambiguity, [the provisions of] section four 45 hundred fifty-three of the general business law shall govern.

46 10. This section does not supersede, alter or abridge any provision of 47 article forty-three of this chapter including, but not limited to, the 48 persons authorized to execute an anatomical gift pursuant to section 49 forty-three hundred one of this chapter.

50 11. This section does not diminish the enforceability of a contract or 51 agreement in which a person controlling the disposition of the remains 52 of a decedent agrees to pay for goods or services in connection with the 53 disposition of such remains.

54 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
