not voluntarily provided to the requesting party. In making the determinations, the court shall review any victim's statement and any relevant 3 materials and evidence submitted by the sex offender and the district attorney and the court may consider reliable hearsay evidence submitted by either party provided that it is relevant to the determinations. Facts previously proven at trial or elicited at the time of entry of a 5 6 7 plea of quilty shall be deemed established by clear and convincing evidence and shall not be relitigated. The court shall render an order setting forth its determinations and the findings of fact and conclu-9 10 sions of law on which the determinations are based. A copy of the order 11 shall be submitted by the court to the division. Upon application of either party, the court shall seal any portion of the court file or record which contains material that is confidential under any state or 12 13 14 federal statute. Either party may appeal as of right from the order 15 pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-16 seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been 17 assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that 18 offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall 19 be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may 20 appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county 21 law. 22

S 2. Subdivision 2 of section 168-k of the correction law, as amended by chapter 684 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

2. The division shall advise the board that the sex offender has established residence in this state. The board shall determine whether sex offender is required to register with the division. If it is determined that the sex offender is required to register, the division shall notify the sex offender of his or her duty to register under this article and shall require the sex offender to sign a form as may be required by the division acknowledging that the duty to register and the procedure for registration has been explained to the sex offender. The division shall obtain on such form the address where the sex offender expects to reside within the state and the sex offender shall retain one copy of the form and send two copies to the division which shall provide the information to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction where the sex offender expects to reside within this state. No later thirty days prior to the board making a recommendation, the sex offender shall be notified that his or her case is under review and that he or she is permitted to submit to the board any information relevant to the review. After reviewing any information obtained, and applying the quidelines AND RISK ASSESSMENT INSTRUMENT established in subdivision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article, the board shall within sixty calendar days make a recommendation regarding level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article and whether such sex offender shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offender, or predicate offender as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. This recommendation shall be confidential and shall not be available for public inspection. It shall be submitted by the board to the county court or supreme court and to the district attorney in the county of residence of the sex offender and to the sex offender. It shall be the duty of the county court or supreme court in the county of residence of the sex offender, applying the quidelines AND RISK ASSESSMENT INSTRUMENT established in subdivision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article, to determine the level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article and whether such sex offender shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offender, 3 predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. At least thirty days prior to the 5 determination proceeding, such court shall notify the district attorney 6 and the sex offender, in writing, of the date of the determination 7 proceeding and the court shall also provide the district attorney and 8 sex offender with a copy of the recommendation received from the board 9 and any statement of the reasons for the recommendation received from 10 the board. This notice shall include the following statement or 11 substantially similar statement: "This proceeding is being held to determine whether you will be classified as a level 3 offender (risk of 12 repeat offense is high), a level 2 offender (risk of repeat offense is 13 14 moderate), or a level 1 offender (risk of repeat offense is 15 whether you will be designated as a sexual predator, a sexually violent 16 offender or a predicate sex offender, which will determine how long you must register as a sex offender and how much information can be provided 17 18 the public concerning your registration. If you fail to appear at 19 this proceeding, without sufficient excuse, it shall be held in your absence. Failure to appear may result in a longer period of registration 20 21 a higher level of community notification because you are not present 22 to offer evidence or contest evidence offered by the district attorney." The court shall also advise the sex offender that he or she has a right 23 a hearing prior to the court's determination, that he or she has the 24 25 right to be represented by counsel at the hearing and that counsel will 26 appointed if he or she is financially unable to retain counsel. A 27 returnable form shall be enclosed in the court's notice to the sex offender on which the sex offender may apply for assignment of counsel. 28 29 If the sex offender applies for assignment of counsel and the court 30 finds that the offender is financially unable to retain counsel, the court shall assign counsel to represent the sex offender pursuant to 31 32 article eighteen-B of the county law. If the district attorney seeks a 33 determination that differs from the recommendation submitted by the board, at least ten days prior to the determination proceeding the district attorney shall provide to the court and the sex offender a 34 35 statement setting forth the determinations sought by the district attor-36 37 ney together with the reasons for seeking such determinations. The court shall allow the sex offender to appear and be heard. The state shall appear by the district attorney, or his or her designee, who shall bear 38 39 40 the burden of proving the facts supporting the determinations sought by clear and convincing evidence. It shall be the duty of the court apply-41 ing the guidelines AND RISK ASSESSMENT INSTRUMENT established in subdi-42 43 vision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article to 44 determine the level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of 45 section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article and whether such sex offender shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offen-46 47 der, or predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of 48 section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. Where there is a dispute between the parties concerning the determinations, 49 shall adjourn the hearing as necessary to permit the sex offender or the 50 51 district attorney to obtain materials relevant to the determinations from the state board of examiners of sex offenders or any state or local 52 53 facility, hospital, institution, office, agency, department or division. 54 Such materials may be obtained by subpoena if not voluntarily provided 55 the requesting party. In making the determinations the court shall review any victim's statement and any relevant materials and evidence 56 submitted by the sex offender and the district attorney and the recommendation and any material submitted by the board, and may consider reliable hearsay evidence submitted by either party, provided that it is relevant to the determinations. If available, facts proven at trial or elicited at the time of a plea of guilty shall be deemed established by clear and convincing evidence and shall not be relitigated. The court shall render an order setting forth its determinations and the findings fact and conclusions of law on which the determinations are based. A copy of the order shall be submitted by the court to the division. Upon application of either party, the court shall seal any portion of the court file or record which contains material that is confidential under any state or federal statute. Either party may appeal as of right from the order pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six fifty-seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county
