IN ASSEMBLY

January 22, 2015

Introduced by M. of A. PEOPLES-STOKES -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to institution of court actions under section 297 thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 297 of the executive law, as 2 amended by section 16 of part D of chapter 405 of the laws of 1999, is 3 amended to read as follows:

9. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful discriminatory 4 5 practice shall have a cause of action in any court of appropriate juris-6 diction for damages, including, in cases of housing discrimination only, punitive damages, and such other remedies as may be appropriate, includ-7 8 ing any civil fines and penalties provided in subdivision four of this 9 section, unless such person had filed a complaint [hereunder] PURSUANT THIS SECTION or with any local commission on human rights, or with 10 TO the superintendent pursuant to the provisions of section two hundred 11 12 ninety-six-a of this [chapter,] ARTICLE; provided that, where the divi-13 sion has dismissed such complaint on the grounds of administrative 14 convenience, on the grounds of untimeliness, or on the grounds that the election of remedies is annulled, such person shall maintain all rights 15 bring suit as if no complaint had been filed with the division AND 16 to 17 MAY BRING SUCH SUIT WITHIN THREE YEARS AFTER ANY SUCH DISMISSAL FOR ADMINISTRATIVE CONVENIENCE. At any time prior to a hearing before a 18 19 hearing examiner, a person who has a complaint pending at the division 20 may request that the division dismiss the complaint and annul his or her election of remedies so that the human rights law claim may be pursued 21 in court, and the division may, upon such request, dismiss the complaint 22 23 on the grounds that such person's election of an administrative remedy 24 is annulled. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of section two hundred four 25 the civil practice law and rules, if a complaint is so annulled by of the division, upon the request of the party bringing such complaint before the division, such party's rights to bring such cause of action 1 2 3 before a court of appropriate jurisdiction shall be limited by the statute of limitations in effect in such court at the time the complaint was 4 5 initially filed with the division. Any party to a housing discrimination 6 complaint shall have the right, within twenty days following a determi-7 nation of probable cause pursuant to subdivision two of this section, to 8 elect to have an action commenced in a civil court, and an attorney 9 representing the division of human rights [will] SHALL be appointed to 10 present the complaint in court[,] or, with the consent of the division, the case may be presented by complainant's attorney. A complaint filed 11 by the equal employment opportunity commission to comply with the requirements of 42 USC 2000e-5(c) and 42 USC 12117(a) and 29 USC 633(b) 12 13 14 shall not constitute the filing of a complaint within the meaning of 15 this subdivision. No person who has initiated any action in a court of competent jurisdiction or who has an action pending before any adminis-16 trative agency under any other law of the state based upon an act which 17 would be an unlawful discriminatory practice under this article[,] 18 may 19 file a complaint with respect to the same grievance under this section or under section two hundred ninety-six-a of this article. 20 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately. 21
