S 136. Correctional education. 1. The objective of correctional educain its broadest sense should be the socialization of the inmates through varied impressional and expressional activities, with emphasis individual inmate needs. The objective of this program shall be the return of these inmates to society with a more wholesome attitude toward living, with a desire to conduct themselves as good citizens, skill and knowledge which will give them a reasonable chance to maintain themselves and their dependents through honest labor. end each inmate shall be given a program of education which, on the basis of available data, seems most likely to further the process of socialization and rehabilitation. Provided that, the commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of education, shall develop a curricula for and require provision of an education program to all inmates, on a periodic basis, on the consequences and prevention of shaken baby syndrome which may include the viewing of a video presentation thereon. The time daily devoted to such education shall be such as is required for meeting the above objectives. The director of education, subject to the direction of the commissioner and after consultation with the commissioner of education, shall develop the curricula and the education programs that are required to meet the special needs of each correctional facility in the department. The commissioner of education, in [co-operation] COOPERATION with the commissioner and the director of educa-
