(a) The commission shall inspect all financial disclosure statements filed with the commission to ascertain whether any person subject to the reporting requirements of section 73-a of the public officers law has failed to file such a statement, has filed a deficient statement or has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of section 73, 73-a or 74 of the public officers law.

(b) If a person required to file a financial disclosure statement with the commission has failed to file a disclosure statement or has filed a deficient statement, the commission shall notify the reporting person in writing, state the failure to file or detail the deficiency, provide the person with a fifteen day period to cure the deficiency, and advise the person of the penalties for failure to comply with the reporting requirements. Such notice shall be confidential. If the person fails to make such filing or fails to cure the deficiency within the specified time period, the commission shall send a notice of delinquency: (1) to the reporting person; (2) in the case of a statewide elected official, to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly; and (3) in the case of a state officer or employee, to the appointing authority for such person. Such notice of delinquency may be sent at any time during the reporting person's service as a statewide elected official, state officer or employee, political party chair or while a candidate for statewide office, or within one year after termination of such service or candidacy. The jurisdiction of the commission, when acting pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section with respect to financial disclosure, shall continue notwithstanding that the reporting person separates from state service, or ceases to hold office as a statewide elected official or political party chair, or ceases to be a candidate, provided the commission notifies such person of the alleged failure to file or deficient filing pursuant to this subdivision.

(c)(1) If the commission receives a sworn complaint alleging a violation of section 73, 73-a or 74 of the public officers law, section 107 of the civil service law or article 1-A of the legislative law by a person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, or if a reporting individual has filed a statement which reveals a possible violation of these provisions, or if the commission determines on its own initiative to investigate a possible violation, the commission shall notify the individual in writing, describe the possible or alleged violation of such laws and provide the person with a fifteen day period in which to submit a written response setting forth information relating to the activities cited as a possible or alleged violation of law. If the commission thereafter makes a determination that further inquiry is justified, it shall give the individual an opportunity to be heard. The

1 commission shall also inform the individual of its rules regarding the 2 conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals and the due process
3 procedural mechanisms available to such individual. If the commission 4 determines at any stage of the proceeding that there is no violation or 5 that any potential conflict of interest violation has been rectified, it 6 shall so advise the individual and the complainant, if any. All of the 7 foregoing proceedings shall be confidential.

8 (2) If the commission determines that there is reasonable cause to 9 believe that a violation has occurred, it shall send a notice of reason-10 able cause: (i) to the reporting person; (ii) to the complainant if any;
11 (iii) in the case of a statewide elected official, to the temporary 12 president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly; and (iv) in the 13 case of a state officer or employee, to the appointing authority for 14 such person.

15 (3) The jurisdiction of the commission when acting pursuant to this 16 act shall continue notwithstanding that a statewide elected official or 17 a state officer or employee separates from state service, or a political 18 party chair ceases to hold such office, or a candidate ceases to be a 19 candidate, or a lobbyist or client of a lobbyist ceases to act as such, 20 provided that the commission notifies such individual or entity of the 21 alleged violation of law pursuant to paragraph one of this subdivision 22 within one year from his or her separation from state service or his or 23 her termination of party service or candidacy, or from his, her or its 24 last report filed pursuant to article 1-A of the legislative law. Noth-
25 ing in this section shall serve to limit the jurisdiction of the commis-
26 sion in enforcement of subdivision 8 of section 73 of the public offi-
27 cers law.

28 (d) An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission who 29 knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of subdivisions 2
30 through 5, 7, 8, 12 or 14 through 17 of section 73 of the public offi-
31 cers law, section 107 of the civil service law, or a reporting individ-32 ual who knowingly and wilfully fails to file an annual statement of 33 financial disclosure or who knowingly and wilfully with intent to 34 deceive makes a false statement or fraudulent omission or gives informa-
35 tion which such individual knows to be false on such statement of finan-
36 cial disclosure filed pursuant to section 73-a of the public officers 37 law shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed 38 $40,000 and the value of any gift, compensation or benefit received as a 39 result of such violation. An individual who knowingly and intentionally 40 violates the provisions of paragraphs b, c, d or i of subdivision 3 of 41 section 74 of the public officers law shall be subject to a civil penal-42 ty in an amount not to exceed $10,000 and the value of any gift, compen-
43 sation or benefit received as a result of such violation. An individual 44 who knowingly and intentionally violates the provisions of paragraphs a, 45 e or g of subdivision 3 of section 74 of the public officers law shall 46 be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed the value of 47 any gift, compensation or benefit received as a result of such 48 violation. An individual subject to the jurisdiction of the commission
49 who knowingly and wilfully violates article 1-A of the legislative law 50 shall be subject to civil penalty as provided for in that article.
51 Assessment of a civil penalty pursuant to this section shall be made by 52 the commission with respect to persons subject to its jurisdiction. In 53 assessing the amount of the civil penalties to be imposed, the commis-
54 sion shall consider the seriousness of the violation, the amount of gain 55 to the individual and whether the individual previously had any civil or 56 criminal penalties imposed pursuant to this section, and any other

1 factors the commission deems appropriate. For a violation of this subdi-
2 vision, other than for conduct which constitutes a violation of section 3 107 of the civil service law, subdivisions 12 or 14 through 17 of 4 section 73 or section 74 of the public officers law or article 1-A of 5 the legislative law, the commission may, in lieu of a civil penalty, 6 refer a violation to the appropriate prosecutor and upon such 7 conviction, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor.
8 A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed pursuant to this 9 section in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported pursuant 10 to this section is incorrect unless such reported information is falsely 11 understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, 12 no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for a failure to 13 file, or for a false filing, of such statement, or a violation of 14 section 73 of the public officers law, except that the appointing 15 authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law.
16 The commission may refer violations of this section to the appointing 17 authority for disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. The 18 commission shall be deemed to be an agency within the meaning of article 19 3 of the state administrative procedure act and shall adopt rules
20 governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals taken
21 pursuant to a proceeding commenced under article 78 of the civil prac-
22 tice law and rules relating to the assessment of the civil penalties 23 authorized by this subdivision and commission denials of requests for 24 certain deletions or exemptions to be made from a financial disclosure 25 statement as authorized by this act. Such rules, which shall not be 26 subject to the approval requirements of the state administrative proce-
27 dure act, shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substan-
28 tially similar to those set forth in article 3 of the state administra-29 tive procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or 30 scope. Assessment of a civil penalty or commission denial of such a 31 request shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within 32 thirty days of imposition, with respect to the assessment of such penal-

34 ity, conflicts of interest or abuse by another state officer or employee 35 relating to his or her office or employment, or by a person having busi-

28 otherwise. Any such employee who, at the time of such transfer, has a 29 temporary or provisional appointment shall be transferred subject to the 30 same right of removal, examination or termination as though such trans-

25 contract or document pertaining to the functions, powers, obligations
26 and duties transferred and assigned pursuant to this act, such reference 27 or designation shall be deemed to refer to the commission.

28 S 20. Existing rights and remedies preserved. No existing right or 29 remedy of any character shall be lost, impaired or affected by reason of 30 any transfer or assignment pursuant to this act.
