2015-2016 Regular Sessions

I N A S S E M B L Y

February 5, 2015

Introduced by M. of A. KOLB -- read once and referred to the Committee on Election Law

AN ACT to amend the election law and the public officers law, in relation to the delegate selection process for a constitutional convention

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "People's Convention Reform Act".
3 S 2. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature hereby 4 finds that it is only at constitutional conventions that ordinary citi-
5 zens have the opportunity to reconsider the fundamental structure of 6 state government and to assess its effectiveness in light of the current 7 social, economic and political conditions of the day. In providing for 8 periodic constitutional conventions, the framers of our current document
9 acknowledged the need to have a dynamic, living and breathing statement
10 of how government should operate and what limits or controls it should 11 have on our individual pursuit of life, liberty and happiness.
12 Unfortunately the last two constitutional conventions were dominated 13 by the politically connected (two-thirds of the delegates to the 1938
14 convention and about 83% of the 1967 delegates were present or former 15 elected or party officials). To ensure the success of future
16 conventions, we must limit the participation of elected and party offi-
17 cials so that the conventions can be "People's Conventions" and so the 18 voices of all New Yorkers, not just those of special interests, can be 19 heard.
20 The legislature further finds and declares, in furtherance of estab-
21 lishing a meaningful convention process, that:
22 (a) delegates to the convention should be involved and concerned citi-
23 zens and not elected officials, lobbyists, or party chairmen;

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

LBD02339-01-5

(b) prior to the convening of the convention, and solely as an aid to delegates, there should be appointed a preparatory commission with adequate time to study the issues, establish a proposed initial agenda and procedures, and prepare position papers, with ongoing information to and participation of the public;

(c) insofar as possible, procedures should be established in both the selection of delegates and in the running of the convention that will reduce partisanship; and

(d) reasonable time limits should be placed on the length of the convention and its costs, so as to assure that the operations of the convention are not a burden on taxpayers, and that the convention may enjoy maximum citizen participation.

To ensure that future constitutional conventions are truly People's Conventions, we hereby find and declare that the statutory reforms of the delegate selection process contained in this act must be enacted.

S 3. Section 1-104 of the election law is amended by adding a new subdivision 38 to read as follows:
