The legislature further finds and declares that the practice of "warehousing", that is of intentionally withholding housing accommodations from the housing market, including the withholding of apartments for purposes of future co-operative apartment conversion, has contributed significantly to the shortage of housing in this state, especially in the city of New York.

The legislature further finds and declares that the practice of warehousing has violated the right to housing of many of the citizens and residents of this state.

It is thus the intent of the legislature to eliminate the practice of warehousing by providing strong penalties to deter such practice.
