6     as follows:

7     S 711. Grounds where landlord-tenant relationship exists. 1. (A) A
8     tenant shall include an occupant of one or more rooms in a rooming house
9     or a resident, not including a transient occupant, of one or more rooms
10    in a hotel who has been in possession for thirty consecutive days or 11    longer; he shall not be removed from possession except in a special
12    proceeding.

13    (B) FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS ARTICLE, A TENANT SHALL NOT INCLUDE A 14    PERSON WHO ENTERS ONTO PROPERTY WITH THE INTENT OF SQUATTING ON THE 15    PROPERTY OR OTHERWISE SETTLES ON LAND OR OCCUPIES PROPERTY WITHOUT 16    TITLE, RIGHT, PERMISSION OF THE RIGHTFUL OWNER, OR PAYMENT OF RENT.

17    2. A special proceeding may be maintained under this article upon the 18    following grounds:

19    [1.] (A) The tenant continues in possession of any portion of the 20    premises after the expiration of his term, without the permission of the 21    landlord or, in a case where a new lessee is entitled to possession, 22    without the permission of the new lessee. Acceptance of rent after term fixed in the lease pursuant to a provision contained therein giving the landlord the right to terminate the time fixed for occupancy under such agreement if he deem the tenant objectionable, shall not be maintainable unless the landlord shall by competent evidence establish to the satisfaction of the court that the tenant is objectionable.

[2.] (B) The tenant has defaulted in the payment of rent, pursuant to the agreement under which the premises are held, and a demand of the rent has been made, or at least three days' notice in writing requiring, in the alternative, the payment of the rent, or the possession of the premises, has been served upon him as prescribed in section [735] SEVEN HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE OF THIS ARTICLE. The landlord may waive his right to proceed upon this ground only by an express consent in writing to permit the tenant to continue in possession, which consent shall be revocable at will, in which event the landlord shall be deemed to have waived his right to summary dispossess for nonpayment of rent accruing during the time said consent remains unrevoked. Any person succeeding to the landlord's interest in the premises may proceed under this subdivision for rent due his predecessor in interest if he has a right thereto. Where a tenant dies during the term of the lease and rent due has not been paid and no representative or person has taken possession of the premises and no administrator or executor has been appointed, the proceeding may be commenced after three months from the date of death of the tenant by joining the surviving spouse or if there is none, then one of the surviving issue or if there is none, then any one of the distributees.

[3.] (C) The tenant, in a city defaults in the payment, for sixty days after the same shall be payable, of any taxes or assessments levied on the premises which he has agreed in writing to pay pursuant to the agreement under which the premises are held, and a demand for payment has been made, or at least three days' notice in writing, requiring in the alternative the payment thereof and of any interest and penalty thereon, or the possession of the premises, has been served upon him, as prescribed in section [735] SEVEN HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE OF THIS ARTICLE. An acceptance of any rent shall not be construed as a waiver of the agreement to pay taxes or assessments.

[4.] (D) The tenant, under a lease for a term of three years or less, has during the term taken the benefit of an insolvency statute or has been adjudicated a bankrupt.

[5.] (E) The premises, or any part thereof, are used or occupied as a bawdy-house, or house or place of assignation for lewd persons, or for purposes of prostitution, or for any illegal trade or manufacture, or other illegal business.

[6.] (F) The tenant, in a city having a population of one million or more, removes the batteries or otherwise disconnects or makes inoperable an installed smoke or fire detector which the tenant has not requested be moved from its location so as not to interfere with the reasonable use of kitchen facilities provided that the court, upon complaint thereof, has previously issued an order of violation of the provisions heretofore stated and, subsequent to the thirtieth day after service of such order upon the tenant, an official inspection report by the appropriate department of housing preservation and development is presented, in writing, indicating non-compliance herewith; provided further, that the tenant shall have the additional ten day period to cure such violation in accordance with the provisions of subdivision four of section seven hundred fifty-three of this [chapter] ARTICLE.

S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
