provisions of the following sections of this article, the wage board and the commissioner shall consider the amount sufficient to provide adequate maintenance and to protect health and, in addition, the wage board and the commissioner shall consider the value of the work or classification of work performed, and the wages paid in the state for work of like or comparable character.

(2) COUNTIES OR CITIES ARE AUTHORIZED TO ENACT HIGHER MINIMUM WAGES UP TO THIRTY PERCENT HIGHER THAN THE MINIMUM WAGE ESTABLISHED FOR EACH CLASS PURSUANT TO THIS ARTICLE AND ARTICLE NINETEEN-A OF THIS CHAPTER.

S 4. Subdivision 1 of section 662 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

1. Failure to pay minimum wage or overtime compensation. Any employer or his or her agent, or the officer or agent of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, who pays or agrees to pay to any employee less than the wage applicable under this article, INCLUDING ANY MINIMUM WAGE ESTABLISHED BY A COUNTY OR CITY shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, and, in the event that any second or subsequent offense occurs within six years of the date of conviction for a prior offense, shall be guilty of a felony for the second or subsequent offense, and upon conviction therefor, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year plus one day, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, for each such offense. Each payment to any employee in any week of less than the wage applicable under this article shall constitute a separate offense.

S 5. Nothing in this act shall have any effect on the authority of counties or cities to adopt standards relating to wages, hours, or other working conditions, or mechanisms for the enforcement thereof, that are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

S 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
