AN ACT to amend the executive law, the civil rights law and the education law, in relation to prohibiting discrimination based on gender identity or expression; and to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to including offenses regarding gender identity or expression within the list of offenses subject to treatment as hate crimes

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature reaffirms 2 that the state has the responsibility to act to assure that every indi-
3 vidual within this state is afforded an equal opportunity to enjoy a 4 full and productive life, and that the failure to provide such equal 5 opportunity, whether because of discrimination, prejudice, intolerance 6 or inadequate education, training, housing or health care not only 7 threatens the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants, but 8 menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state and 9 threatens the peace, order, health, safety and general welfare of the 10 state and its inhabitants.

11 The legislature further finds that many residents of this state have 12 encountered prejudice on account of their gender identity or expression, 13 and that this prejudice has severely limited or actually prevented
14 access to employment, housing and other basic necessities of life, lead-
15 ing to deprivation and suffering. The legislature further recognizes

1 that this prejudice has fostered a general climate of hostility and 2 distrust, leading in some instances to physical violence against those 3 perceived to live in a gender identity or expression which is different 4 from that traditionally associated with the sex assigned to that person 5 at birth.

6 In so doing, the legislature makes clear its action is not intended to 7 promote any particular attitude, course of conduct or way of life. Rath-8 er its purpose is to ensure that individuals who live in our free socie-
9 ty have the capacity to make their own choices, follow their own beliefs 10 and conduct their own lives as they see fit, consistent with existing 11 law.

12 The legislature further finds that, as court decisions have properly 13 held, New York's sex discrimination laws prohibit discrimination based 14 on gender stereotypes or because an individual has transitioned or 15 intends to transition from one gender to another. This legislation is 16 intended to codify this principle and to ensure that the public under-17 stands that discrimination on the basis of gender identity and 18 expression is prohibited.

19 S 2. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 291 of the executive law, as 20 amended by chapter 196 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as

23 of age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, GENDER

25 bility, is hereby recognized as and declared to be a civil right.

26 2. The opportunity to obtain education, the use of places of public 27 accommodation and the ownership, use and occupancy of housing accommo-28 dations and commercial space without discrimination because of age,

47 nation in all or specific fields of human relationships or in specific

52 and in specific instances. The advisory councils also shall disseminate 53 information about the division's activities to organizations and indi-54 viduals in their localities. Such advisory councils shall be composed of 55 representative citizens, serving without pay, but with reimbursement for 56 actual and necessary traveling expenses; and the division may make

1 provision for technical and clerical assistance to such councils and for 2 the expenses of such assistance.

3 9. To develop human rights plans and policies for the state and assist 4 in their execution and to make investigations and studies appropriate to 5 effectuate this article and to issue such publications and such results 6 of investigations and research as in its judgement will tend to inform

S 19. Section 485.00 of the penal law, as added by chapter 107 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

S 485.00 Legislative findings.

The legislature finds and determines as follows: criminal acts involving violence, intimidation and destruction of property based upon bias and prejudice have become more prevalent in New York state in recent years. The intolerable truth is that in these crimes, commonly and justly referred to as "hate crimes", victims are intentionally selected, in whole or in part, because of their race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation. Hate crimes do more than threaten the safety and welfare of all citizens. They inflict on victims incalculable physical and emotional damage and tear at the very fabric of free society. Crimes motivated by invidious hatred toward particular groups not only harm individual victims but send a powerful message of intolerance and discrimination to all members of the group to which the victim belongs. Hate crimes can and do intimidate and disrupt entire communities and vitiate the civility that is essential to healthy democratic processes. In a democratic society, citizens cannot be required to approve of the beliefs and practices of others, but must never commit criminal acts on account of them. Current law does not adequately recognize the harm to public order and individual safety that hate crimes cause. Therefore, our laws must be strengthened to provide clear recognition of the gravity of hate crimes and the compelling importance of preventing their recurrence.

Accordingly, the legislature finds and declares that hate crimes should be prosecuted and punished with appropriate severity.

S 20. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 4 of section 485.05 of the penal law, as added by chapter 107 of the laws of 2000, are amended to read as follows:

(b) intentionally commits the act or acts constituting the offense in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct.

2. Proof of race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, GENDER IDENTITY OR EXPRESSION, religion, religious practice, age, disability or

1 sexual orientation of the defendant, the victim or of both the defendant
2 and the victim does not, by itself, constitute legally sufficient 3 evidence satisfying the people's burden under paragraph (a) or (b) of 4 subdivision one of this section.
