AN ACT to create a temporary New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission, and providing for its powers and duties; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares there is a need to create a New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission to promote the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage, which will take place between the years 2017 and 2020. The primary focus of the New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission will be to plan and execute an organized series of statewide programs that celebrate the accomplishment of women's suffrage and the central role of New Yorkers and New York state in this milestone, while also helping shape the future to ensure a more just and equitable society for all. The legislature finds that the creation of a New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission is necessary to bring together persons qualified by experience and/or by powers vested in them by their offices to coordinate and facilitate such a multi-year event.

S 2. New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission; created. (a) There is hereby created a temporary state commission to be known as the "New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission".

(b) As used in this act, "commission" means the New York state women's suffrage 100th anniversary commemoration commission.

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [ ] is old law to be omitted.

(c) (1) The commission shall consist of 14 members as follows:
(i) the commissioner of parks, recreation and historic preservation, or his or her duly designated representative;
(ii) the commissioner of education, or his or her duly designated representative;
(iii) the commissioner of economic development, or his or her duly designated representative;
(iv) the president of the League of Women Voters of New York State;
(v) the superintendent of the Women's Rights National Historical Park;
(vi) the president of the Susan B. Anthony Museum and House;
(vii) the director of the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation;
(viii) the president of 2020: Project Women, Inc.;
(ix) a member of the board of the New York Council for the Humanities as a non-voting member;
(x) one member appointed by the governor;
(xi) one member appointed by the temporary president of the senate;
(xii) one member appointed by the speaker of the assembly;
(xiii) one member appointed by the minority leader of the senate; and
(xiv) one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly.

The five members appointed pursuant to subparagraphs (x)-(xiv) of this paragraph shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing official. Vacancies shall be filled in the manner provided for original appointments.

(2) The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general, special or local law, ordinance, resolution or charter, no officer, member or employee of the state or of any public corporation shall forfeit his or her office or employment by reason of his or her acceptance of appointment as a member of the commission, nor shall service as such commission member be deemed incompatible or in conflict with such office or employment.

(4) The commission shall appoint such staff as may be necessary to carry out its duties. Such staff shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of the commission's duties.

S 3. Powers and duties of the commission. The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To coordinate the commemoration of the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage for the years 2017 through 2020;

(b) To plan and execute an organized series of events surrounding women's suffrage;

(c) To utilize a portfolio of public humanities programs to engage the citizens of New York with the important issues inherent to the women's suffrage initiative; and

(d) To hold lectures exploring how women have shaped history and continue to form the history of New York state.

S 4. The commission may meet and hold public hearings and events within the state.

S 5. The commission may request and shall receive from any subdivision, department, board, commission, office, agency, or other instrumentality of the state or of any political subdivision thereof such facilities, assistance and data reasonably available as it deems necessary or desirable for the proper execution of its powers and duties and to effectuate the purposes set forth in this act.

S 6. The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any agreements and to do and perform any acts that may be necessary, desirable or proper to carry out the purposes and objectives of this act, including entering into contracts with entities for grant and re-granting of programs to develop and implement the above.

S 7. The performance of the commission's duties, purposes and objectives shall be executed within amounts made available by appropriation therefor.

S 8. The commission shall continue in existence until December 31, 2020.

S 9. This act shall take effect April 1, 2016 and shall expire and be deemed repealed December 31, 2020.
