AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to the description of marihuana, and the growing of and use of marihuana by persons eighteen years of age or older; to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to making technical changes regarding the definition of marihuana; to amend the penal law, in relation to the qualification of certain offenses involving marihuana and to exempt certain persons from prosecution for the use, consumption, display, production or distribution of marihuana; to amend the alcoholic beverage control law, in relation to providing for the licensure of persons authorized to produce, process and sell marihuana; to amend the tax law, in relation to providing for the levying of an excise tax on certain sales of marihuana; to amend the criminal procedure law, the civil practice law and rules, the general business law, the state finance law, the executive law, the penal law and the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to making conforming changes; to repeal sections 221.10, 221.25, 221.30, 221.50 and 221.55 of the penal law relating to the criminal possession and sale of marihuana; to repeal paragraph (f) of subdivision 2 of section 850 of the general business law relating to drug related paraphernalia; and making an appropriation therefor

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "marihuana
2 regulation and taxation act".
3 S 2. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature finds that 4 decades of arresting marihuana users has failed to prevent marihuana use 5 or prevent minors from accessing marihuana. Existing marihuana laws have 6 created a violent, illegal drug market that consumes millions of dollars

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

1 in criminal justice resources each year. Existing marihuana laws have 2 also disproportionately impacted African-American and Latino communi-
3 ties. Regulating, controlling, and taxing marihuana like alcohol will 4 save criminal justice resources, reduce violent crime, reduce racial 5 disparities, and generate revenue.

6 Additionally, industrial hemp is produced in at least 30 nations and 7 used to create thousands of products including paper, textiles, food
8 oils, automotive parts, and personal care products. Hundreds of millions
9 of dollars of industrial hemp products are sold in the United States
10 each year.

11 The intent of this act is to regulate, control, and tax marihuana in a 12 manner similar to alcohol, generate millions of dollars in new revenue, 13 prevent access to marihuana by those under the age of eighteen years, 14 reduce the illegal drug market and reduce violent crime, reduce the 15 racially disparate impact of existing marihuana laws, allow industrial 16 hemp to be farmed in New York state, and create new industries and 17 increase employment.

18 Nothing in this act is intended to limit the authority of any district
19 government agency or office or employers to enact and enforce policies 20 pertaining to marihuana in the workplace, to allow driving under the 21 influence of marihuana, to allow individuals to engage in conduct that 22 endangers others, to allow smoking marihuana in any location where smok-23 ing tobacco is prohibited, or to require any individual to engage in any 24 conduct that violates federal law or to exempt anyone from any require-25 ment of federal law or pose any obstacle to the federal enforcement of 26 federal law.

27 Nothing in this act is intended to limit any privileges or rights of a 28 medical marihuana patient or medical marihuana caregiver under the New 29 York Compassionate Care Act.

30 S 3. Section 3302 of the public health law, as added by chapter 878 of 31 the laws of 1972, subdivisions 1, 14, 16, 17 and 27 as amended and

13 otherwise required by this section. Notwithstanding the above 14 provisions, any such affirmative defense shall not be applicable in any 15 other civil or criminal proceeding, or in any other forum.
