1 PARTIAL BENEFIT CREDIT, IF NOT A MULTIPLE OF ONE DOLLAR, SHALL BE 2 COMPUTED TO THE NEXT HIGHER MULTIPLE OF ONE DOLLAR.

3 S 4. Subdivision 4 of section 527 of the labor law, as amended by 4 chapter 832 of the laws of 1968 and as renumbered by chapter 381 of the 5 laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:

6 4. General condition. A valid original claim may be filed only in a 7 week [in which the claimant has at least one effective day of unemploy-8 ment] THAT QUALIFIES AS AN EFFECTIVE WEEK OF UNEMPLOYMENT FOR THE CLAIM-9 ANT.

10 S 5. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 581 11 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 282 of the laws of 2002 and 12 clause (v) as added by chapter 106 of the laws of 2007, is amended to 13 read as follows:

14 (2) Benefits payable to any claimant with respect to the claimant's 15 then current benefit year shall be charged, when paid, to the account of last employer prior to the filing of a valid original claim in an 16 the 17 amount equal to seven times the claimant's benefit rate. Thereafter, 18 charges shall be made to the account of each employer in the base such 19 period used to establish the valid original claim in the same proportion 20 that the remuneration paid by each employer to the claimant during that 21 base period bears to the remuneration paid by all employers to the 22 claimant during that base period except as provided below:

23 (i) In those instances where the claimant may not utilize wages paid establish entitlement based upon subdivision ten of section five 24 to 25 hundred ninety of this article and an educational institution the is 26 claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits, or the claimant performed services in such educational institution in 27 such capacity while employed by an educational service agency which is 28 29 the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits, such employer shall not be liable for benefit charges for the 30 first [twenty-eight effective days] SEVEN EFFECTIVE WEEKS of benefits 31 32 paid as otherwise provided by this section. Under such circumstances, 33 benefits paid shall be charged to the general account. In addition, wages paid during the base period by such educational institutions, or 34 35 for services in such educational institutions for claimants employed by educational service agency shall not be considered base period wages 36 an 37 during periods that such wages may not be used to gain entitlement to benefits pursuant to subdivision ten of section five hundred ninety of 38 39 this article.

40 (ii) In those instances where the claimant may not utilize wages paid establish entitlement based upon subdivision eleven of section five 41 to hundred ninety of this article and an educational institution is the 42 43 claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits, 44 or the claimant performed services in such educational institution in 45 such capacity while employed by an educational service agency which is the claimant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for bene-46 47 fits, such employer shall not be liable for benefit charges for the benefits 48 first [twenty-eight effective days] SEVEN EFFECTIVE WEEKS of paid as otherwise provided by this section. Under such circumstances, 49 benefits paid will be charged to the general account. In addition, wages 50 51 paid during the base period by such educational institutions, or for services in such educational institutions for claimants employed by an 52 educational service agency shall not be considered base period wages 53 54 during periods that such wages may not be used to gain entitlement to 55 benefits pursuant to subdivision eleven of section five hundred ninety 56 this article. However, in those instances where a claimant was not of

1 afforded an opportunity to perform services for the educational institu-2 tion for the next academic year or term after reasonable assurance was 3 provided, such employer shall be liable for benefit charges as provided 4 for in this paragraph for any retroactive payments made to the claimant.

5 (iii) In those instances where the federal government is the claim-6 ant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits and 7 such employer is not a base-period employer, payments equaling the first 8 [twenty-eight effective days] SEVEN EFFECTIVE WEEKS of benefits as 9 otherwise prescribed by this section shall be charged to the general 10 In those instances where the federal government is the claimaccount. 11 ant's last employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits and a base-period employer, such employer shall be liable for charges for all 12 13 benefits paid on such claim in the same proportion that the remuneration 14 paid by such employer during the base period bears to the remuneration 15 paid by all employers during the base period. In addition, benefit 16 payment charges for the first [twenty-eight effective days] SEVEN EFFEC-17 TIVE WEEKS of benefits other than those chargeable to the federal 18 government as prescribed above shall be made to the general account.

19 (iv) In those instances where a combined wage claim is filed pursuant 20 to interstate reciprocal agreements and the claimant's last employer 21 prior to the filing of the claim is an out-of-state employer and such 22 employer is not a base-period employer, benefit payments equaling the first [twenty-eight effective days] SEVEN EFFECTIVE WEEKS of benefits as 23 24 otherwise prescribed by this section shall be charged to the general 25 account. In those instances where the out-of-state employer is the last 26 employer prior to the filing of the claim for benefits and a base-period employer such employer shall be liable for charges for all benefits paid 27 such claim in the same proportion that the remuneration paid by such 28 on 29 employer during the base period bears to the remuneration paid by all 30 employers during the base period. In addition, benefit payment charges for the [twenty-eight effective days] SEVEN EFFECTIVE WEEKS of benefits 31 32 other than those chargeable to the out-of-state employer as prescribed 33 above shall be made to the general account.

34 (v) In those instances where the last employer prior to the filing of 35 a valid original claim has paid total remuneration to the claimant during the period from the start of the base period used to establish 36 37 the benefit claim until the date of the claimant's filing of the valid 38 original claim in an amount less than or equal to six times the claimant's benefit rate and the last employer has substantiated such amount 39 40 to the satisfaction of the commissioner within ten days of the commissioner's original notice of potential charges to such last employer's 41 account, benefits shall be charged as follows: benefits payable to the 42 43 claimant with respect to the claimant's then current benefit year shall be charged, when paid, to the account of such last employer prior to the 44 45 filing of a valid original claim in an amount equal to the lowest whole number (one, two, three, four, five, or six) times the claimant's bene-46 47 fit rate where the product of such lowest whole number times the claim-48 ant's benefit rate is equal to or greater than such total remuneration 49 paid by such last employer to the claimant. Thereafter, such charges 50 shall be made to the account of each employer in the base period used to 51 establish the valid original claim in the same proportion that the remuneration paid by each employer to the claimant during that base 52 period bears to the remuneration paid by all employers to the claimant 53 54 during that base period. Notice of such recalculation of potential 55 shall be given to the last employer and each employer of the charges claimant in the base period used to establish the valid original claim. 56

3 1. Entitlement to benefits. A claimant shall be entitled to accumulate 4 effective [days] WEEKS for the purpose of benefit rights only if he has complied with the provisions of this article regarding the filing of his 5 б claim, including the filing of a valid original claim, registered as 7 totally OR PARTIALLY unemployed, reported his subsequent employment and 8 unemployment, and reported for work or otherwise given notice of the continuance of his unemployment. 9

10 S 7. Subdivision 3 of section 590 of the labor law, as amended by 11 chapter 645 of the laws of 1951, is amended to read as follows:

12 3. Compensable periods. Benefits shall be paid for each [accumulation 13 of] effective [days within a] week.

14 S 8. Subdivision 4 of section 590 of the labor law, as amended by 15 chapter 457 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as follows:

4. Duration. Benefits shall not be paid [for more than one hundred and four effective days] IN AN AMOUNT GREATER THAN TWENTY-SIX TIMES THE CLAIMANT'S WEEKLY BENEFIT RATE in any benefit year, except as provided in section six hundred one and subdivision two of section five hundred ninety-nine of this chapter.

21 S 9. Subdivision 5 of section 590 of the labor law is amended by 22 adding two new paragraphs (c) and (d) to read as follows:

(C) BENEFIT FOR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT. EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN PARAGRAPH 23 OF THIS SUBDIVISION, ANY CLAIMANT WHO IS PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED WITH 24 (D) 25 RESPECT TO ANY EFFECTIVE WEEK SHALL BE PAID, WITH RESPECT TO SUCH EFFEC-26 TIVE WEEK, A BENEFIT EQUAL TO HIS WEEKLY BENEFIT RATE LESS THE TOTAL OF 27 THE REMUNERATION, IF ANY, PAID OR PAYABLE TO HIM WITH RESPECT TO SUCH 28 WEEK FOR SERVICES PERFORMED WHICH IS IN EXCESS OF HIS PARTIAL BENEFIT 29 CREDIT.

30 (D) BENEFIT FOR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT FOR CERTAIN CLAIMANTS WORKING ONE IN A WEEK. ANY CLAIMANT WHO IS PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED WITH RESPECT TO 31 DAY 32 ANY EFFECTIVE WEEK BUT WHOSE EMPLOYMENT IS LIMITED TO ONE DAY DURING 33 WEEK AND WHOSE REMUNERATION PAID OR PAYABLE TO HIM WITH THAT EFFECTIVE 34 RESPECT TO SUCH WEEK FOR SERVICES PERFORMED IS LESS THAN HIS WEEKLY 35 BENEFIT RATE SHALL BE PAID, WITH RESPECT TO SUCH EFFECTIVE WEEK, A BENE-THREE-QUARTERS OF HIS WEEKLY BENEFIT RATE, OR IF HIGHER, 36 FIT EOUAL TO THE BENEFIT CALCULATED PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH (C) OF THIS SUBDIVISION. 37

S 10. Subdivision 6 of section 590 of the labor law, as added by chapter 720 of the laws of 1953 and as renumbered by chapter 675 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

6. Notification requirement. No effective [day] WEEK shall be counted for any purposes except effective [days] WEEKS as to which notification has been given in a manner prescribed by the commissioner.

44 S 11. Subdivision 7 of section 590 of the labor law, as amended by 45 chapter 415 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

7. Waiting period. A claimant shall not be entitled to accumulate effective [days] WEEKS for the purpose of benefit payments until he has accumulated a waiting period of [four effective days either wholly within the week in which he established his valid original claim or partly within such week and partly within his benefit year initiated by such claim] ONE EFFECTIVE WEEK.

52 S 12. Subdivision 1 of section 591 of the labor law, as amended by 53 chapter 413 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

1. Unemployment. Benefits, except as provided in section five hundred 55 ninety-one-a of this title, shall be paid only to a claimant who is 56 totally unemployed OR PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED and who is unable to engage in his usual employment or in any other for which he is reasonably 1 fitted by training and experience. A claimant who is receiving benefits 2 3 shall not be denied such benefits pursuant to this under this article 4 subdivision or to subdivision two of this section because of such claim-5 ant's service on a grand or petit jury of any state or of the United 6 States. 7 S 13. Subdivision 1 of section 591 of the labor law, as amended by 8 chapter 446 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows: 1. Unemployment. Benefits shall be paid only to a claimant who is 9 10 totally unemployed OR PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED and who is unable to engage 11 his usual employment or in any other for which he is reasonably in fitted by training and experience. A claimant who is receiving benefits 12 13 under this article shall not be denied such benefits pursuant to this 14 subdivision or to subdivision two of this section because of such claim-15 ant's service on a grand or petit jury of any state or of the United 16 States. 17 Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 591 of the labor law S 14. is REPEALED and a new paragraph (a) is added to read as follows: 18 19 (A) COMPENSATION PAID TO A CLAIMANT FOR ANY DAY DURING A PAID VACATION 20 PERIOD, OR FOR A PAID HOLIDAY, SHALL BE CONSIDERED COMPENSATION FROM 21 EMPLOYMENT. 22 Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section S 15. 591-a of the labor law, as amended by section 14 of part 0 of chapter 57 23 24 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows: 25 (i) requirements relating to total unemployment AND PARTIAL UNEMPLOY-26 MENT, as defined in section five hundred twenty-two of this article, 27 availability for work and search for work, as set forth in subdivision 28 of section five hundred ninety-one of this title and refusal to two 29 accept work, as set forth in subdivision two of section five hundred 30 ninety-three of this title, are not applicable to such individuals; 16. Subdivision 2 of section 592 of the labor law, as amended by 31 S 32 chapter 415 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows: 33 2. Concurrent payments prohibited. No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT shall be deemed to occur in any week with 34 respect to which [or a part of which] a claimant has received or is 35 seeking unemployment benefits under an unemployment compensation law of 36 37 any other state or of the United States, provided that this provision shall not apply if the appropriate agency of such other state or of the 38 39 United States finally determines that he is not entitled to such unem-40 ployment benefits. 41 17. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 593 of the labor law, S 42 as amended by section 15 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is 43 amended to read as follows: (a) No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT 44 45 shall be deemed to occur after a claimant's voluntary separation without cause from employment until he or she has subsequently worked in 46 qood 47 employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or 48 her weekly benefit rate. In addition to other circumstances that may be found to constitute good cause, including a compelling family reason as 49 50 forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, voluntary separation set 51 from employment shall not in itself disqualify a claimant if circumstances have developed in the course of such employment that would have 52 53 justified the claimant in refusing such employment in the first instance 54 under the terms of subdivision two of this section or if the claimant, 55 pursuant to an option provided under a collective bargaining agreement 56 or written employer plan which permits waiver of his or her right to

1 retain the employment when there is a temporary layoff because of lack 2 of work, has elected to be separated for a temporary period and the 3 employer has consented thereto.

4 S 18. The opening paragraph of subdivision 2 of section 593 of the 5 labor law, as amended by section 15 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws 6 of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

7 No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT shall be 8 deemed to occur beginning with the [day on] WEEK IN which a claimant, 9 without good cause, refuses to accept an offer of employment for which 10 is reasonably fitted by training and experience, including he or she 11 employment not subject to this article, until he or she has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times 12 13 his or her weekly benefit rate. Except that claimants who are not 14 subject to a recall date or who do not obtain employment through a union 15 hiring hall and who are still unemployed after receiving ten weeks of 16 benefits shall be required to accept any employment proffered that such 17 claimants are capable of performing, provided that such employment would 18 result in a wage not less than eighty percent of such claimant's high calendar quarter wages received in the base period and not substantially 19 less than the prevailing wage for similar work in the locality as 20 21 provided for in paragraph (d) of this subdivision. No refusal to accept 22 employment shall be deemed without good cause nor shall it disqualify 23 any claimant otherwise eligible to receive benefits if:

24 S 19. Subdivision 3 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended by 25 section 15 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to 26 read as follows:

3. Misconduct. No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL UNEM-PLOYMENT shall be deemed to occur after a claimant lost employment through misconduct in connection with his or her employment until he or she has subsequently worked in employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or her weekly benefit rate.

32 S 20. Subdivision 4 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended by 33 chapter 589 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

4. Criminal acts. No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL 34 UNEMPLOYMENT shall be deemed to occur during a period of twelve months 35 after a claimant loses employment as a result of an act constituting a 36 37 felony in connection with such employment, provided the claimant is duly convicted thereof or has signed a statement admitting that he or she has 38 39 committed such an act. Determinations regarding a benefit claim may be 40 reviewed at any time. Any benefits paid to a claimant prior to a determination that the claimant has lost employment as a result of such 41 act shall not be considered to have been accepted by the claimant in good 42 43 faith. In addition, remuneration paid to the claimant by the affected 44 employer prior to the claimant's loss of employment due to such criminal 45 act may not be utilized for the purpose of establishing entitlement to a subsequent, valid original claim. The provisions of this subdivision 46 47 shall apply even if the employment lost as a result of such act is not the claimant's last employment prior to the filing of his or her claim. 48 S 21. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 594 of the labor law, as amended 49

50 by section 16 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, are amended 51 to read as follows:

52 (1) A claimant who has wilfully made a false statement or represen-53 tation to obtain any benefit under the provisions of this article shall 54 forfeit benefits for at least the first [four] ONE but not more than the 55 first [eighty] TWENTY effective [days] WEEKS following discovery of such 56 offense for which he or she otherwise would have been entitled to 1 receive benefits. Such penalty shall apply only once with respect to 2 each such offense.

3 (2) For the purpose of subdivision four of section five hundred ninety 4 of this article, the claimant shall be deemed to have received benefits 5 for such forfeited effective [days] WEEKS.

6 S 22. Subdivision 1 of section 596 of the labor law, as amended by 7 chapter 204 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

8 Claim filing and certification to unemployment. A claimant shall 1. file a claim for benefits at the local state employment office 9 serving 10 the area in which he was last employed or in which he resides within 11 such time and in such manner as the commissioner shall prescribe. He disclose whether he owes child support obligations, as hereafter 12 shall defined. If a claimant making such disclosure is eligible for benefits, 13 14 the commissioner shall notify the state or local child support enforce-15 ment agency, as hereafter defined, that the claimant is eligible.

A claimant shall correctly report any [days] WEEKS of employment 16 and compensation he received for such employment, including employments 17 any 18 not subject to this article, and the [days on] WEEKS DURING which he was 19 totally unemployed OR PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED and shall make such reports 20 in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall prescribe. S 23. Subdivision 4 of section 596 of the labor law, as added by chap-21 22 ter 705 of the laws of 1944, as renumbered by section 148-a of part B of 22 ter 705 of the laws of 1944, as renumbered by section 148-a of part B of 23 chapter 436 of the laws of 1997 and such section as renumbered by chap-24 ter 663 of the laws of 1946, is amended to read as follows:

25 4. Registration and reporting for work. A claimant shall register as 26 totally unemployed OR PARTIALLY UNEMPLOYED at a local state employment office serving the area in which he was last employed or in which he 27 resides in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner shall 28 prescribe. After so registering, such claimant shall report for work 29 at same local state employment office or otherwise give notice of the 30 the 31 continuance of his unemployment as often and in such manner the as 32 commissioner shall prescribe.

33 S 24. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 599 of the labor law, 34 as amended by chapter 593 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as 35 follows:

36 Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a claimant (a) 37 attending an approved training course or program under this section may receive additional benefits of up to [one hundred four] TWENTY-SIX 38 39 effective [days] WEEKS following exhaustion of regular and, if in 40 effect, any other extended benefits, provided that entitlement to a new benefit claim cannot be established. Certification of continued satis-41 factory participation and progress in such training course or program 42 43 must be submitted to the commissioner prior to the payment of any such 44 benefits. The duration of such additional benefits shall in no case 45 exceed twice the number of effective [days] WEEKS of regular benefits to which the claimant is entitled at the time the claimant is accepted in, 46 47 or demonstrates application for appropriate training.

48 S 25. The opening paragraph and paragraph (e) of subdivision 2 of 49 section 601 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 50 2009, are amended to read as follows:

51 Extended benefits shall be payable to a claimant for effective [days] 52 WEEKS occurring [in any week] within an eligibility period, provided the 53 claimant

54 (e) is not claiming benefits pursuant to an interstate claim filed 55 under the interstate benefit payment plan in a state where an extended 56 benefit period is not in effect, except that this condition shall not 1 apply with respect to the first [eight] TWO effective [days] WEEKS for 2 which extended benefits shall otherwise be payable pursuant to an inter-3 state claim filed under the interstate benefit payment plan; and

4 S 26. Paragraphs (b) and (c) of subdivision 3 of section 601 of the 5 labor law, as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, are amended to 6 read as follows:

7 (b) for not more than [fifty-two] THIRTEEN effective [days] WEEKS with 8 respect to his or her applicable benefit year, with a total maximum 9 amount equal to fifty percentum of the total maximum amount of regular 10 benefits payable in such benefit year, and

11 (c) if a claimant's benefit year ends within an extended benefit peri-12 od, the remaining balance of extended benefits to which he or she would 13 be entitled, if any, shall be reduced by the number of effective [days] 14 WEEKS for which he or she was entitled to receive trade readjustment 15 allowances under the federal trade act of nineteen hundred seventy-four 16 during such benefit year, and

17 S 27. Subdivision 4 of section 601 of the labor law, as amended by 18 chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

19 4. Charging of extended benefits. The provisions of paragraph (e) of subdivision one of section five hundred eighty-one of this article shall 20 21 apply to benefits paid pursuant to the provisions of this section, and 22 if they were paid for effective [days occurring in] weeks following the end of a benefit year, they shall be deemed paid with respect to that 23 benefit year. However, except for governmental entities as defined in 24 25 section five hundred sixty-five and Indian tribes as defined in section 26 five hundred sixty-six of this article, only one-half of the amount of such benefits shall be debited to the employers' account; the remainder thereof shall be debited to the general account, and such account shall 27 28 29 be credited with the amount of payments received in the fund pursuant to 30 the provisions of the federal-state extended unemployment compensation act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, where the state has entered an 31 32 extended benefit period triggered pursuant to subparagraph one of para-33 graph (a) of subdivision one of this section for which federal law provides for one hundred percent federal sharing of the costs of bene-34 fits, all charges shall be debited to the general account 35 and such account shall be credited with the amount of payments received in the 36 37 fund pursuant to the provisions of the federal-state extended unemployment compensation act or other federal law providing for one hundred 38 39 percent federal sharing for the cost of such benefits.

40 S 28. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 601 of the labor law, 41 as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 42 follows:

43 (b) No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT 44 shall be deemed to occur [in any week] within an eligibility period 45 during which a claimant fails to accept any offer of suitable work or fails to apply for suitable work to which he or she was referred by the 46 47 commissioner, who shall make such referral if such work is available, or 48 during which he or she fails to engage actively in seeking work by making a systematic and sustained effort to obtain work and providing 49 50 tangible evidence of such effort, and until he or she has worked in 51 employment during at least four subsequent weeks and earned remuneration 52 of at least four times his or her benefit rate.

53 S 29. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 5 of section 601 of the labor law, 54 as amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 55 follows: 1 (e) No [days] WEEKS of total unemployment OR PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT 2 shall be deemed to occur [in any week] within an eligibility period 3 under section five hundred ninety-three of this article, until he or she 4 has subsequently worked in employment in accordance with the require-5 ments set forth in section five hundred ninety-three of this article.

6 S 30. Section 603 of the labor law, as amended by section 21 of part 0 7 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

8 S 603. Definitions. For purposes of this title: "Total unemployment" shall mean the total lack of any employment [on any day] DURING ANY WEEK 9 10 AND "PARTIAL UNEMPLOYMENT" SHALL MEAN ANY EMPLOYMENT DURING ANY WEEK IS LESS THAN FULL-TIME EMPLOYMENT SO LONG AS THE COMPENSATION PAID 11 THAT IS LESS THAN THE CLAIMANT'S WEEKLY BENEFIT RATE PLUS 12 THE CLAIMANT'S 13 PARTIAL BENEFIT CREDIT, other than with an employer applying for a shared work program. "Work force" shall mean the total work force, 14 а clearly identifiable unit or units thereof, or a particular shift or 15 shifts. The work force subject to reduction shall consist of 16 no less 17 than two employees.

18 31. This act shall take effect immediately, provided, that section S 19 nine of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as section 8 of part 0 of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, takes 20 21 effect; and provided further that the amendments to subdivision 1 of 22 section 591 of the labor law made by section twelve of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivision, when upon 23 such date the provisions of section thirteen of this act shall take 24 25 effect; provided further that the amendments to section 591-a of the labor law made by section fifteen of this act shall not affect the expi-26 27 ration of such section and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
