organization who shall be selected within ten days after receipt by the board of a petition for creation of the arbitration panel. If either party fails to designate its member to the public arbitration panel, the board shall promptly, upon receipt of a request by either party, desig-5 nate a member associated in interest with the public employer or employee organization he is to represent. Each of the respective parties is to 6 7 bear the cost of its member appointed or designated to the arbitration 8 panel and each of the respective parties is to share equally the cost of the public member. If, within seven days after the mailing date, the 9 10 parties are unable to agree upon the one public member, the board shall submit to the parties a list of qualified, disinterested persons for the 11 12 selection of the public member. Each party shall alternately strike from the list one of the names with the order of striking determined by 13 14 until the remaining one person shall be designated as public member. This process shall be completed within five days of receipt of 15 16 this list. The parties shall notify the board of the designated public member. The public member shall be chosen as chairman. 17 18

S 2. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that the amendments made to paragraph (a) of subdivision 5 of section 209 of the civil service law by section one of this act shall not affect the expiration of such subdivision and shall be deemed to expire therewith.
