AN ACT to amend the county law, the executive law and the state finance law, in relation to indigent defense services

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. It is a fundamental
2 right of all persons in the United States to be represented by counsel
3 in all criminal prosecutions. In the case of GIDEON V. WAINWRIGHT, 372
4 U.S. 335, the United States Supreme Court ruled that indigent persons
5 accused in state felony cases who were unable to afford counsel had a 6 constitutional right to be defended by an appointed attorney paid by the 7 state. Subsequently, the Supreme Court determined that indigent persons
8 accused of any criminal charge that could result in imprisonment, whether a felony or misdemeanor, are entitled to counsel at the expense of the state.

New York state has chosen to fulfill its obligation to provide representation to indigent persons accused of a crime by requiring each county outside New York city and New York city to implement and fund a plan to provide such representation. In 2006 the Commission on the Future of Indigent Legal Services concluded that a system of county operated and funded indigent defense services failed to satisfy the constitutional obligation to protect the rights of indigent persons accused of a crime. Such Commission recommended that funding for indigent legal services come from the State's general fund rather than from the counties.

New York state has entered into an agreement to settle a class action lawsuit that alleged deprivation of the right to counsel in five counties. The agreement acknowledges that the Office of Indigent Legal Services and the Indigent Legal Services Board are authorized "to monitor and study indigent legal services in the state, to recommend measures to improve those services, to award grant monies to counties to support their indigent representation capability, and to establish criteria for the distribution of such funds." While the settlement agreement pertains to only five counties, its criteria establish a standard for providing indigent legal services that should apply statewide.

The legislature finds and declares that in all criminal proceedings against people unable to afford counsel, New York state is constitutionally required to provide public defense services. The legislature further finds that the state is obligated to undertake initiatives to improve the quality of indigent defense, ensure representation at arraignment, implement caseload standards for providers of indigent legal services, and implement statewide standards for determining eligibility for mandated representation. Mandating counties to finance the state's obligation to provide indigent legal services imposes a significant uncontrollable financial burden on counties dependent on real property taxes to fund needed services, and subject to a state imposed tax cap.

The legislature finds and declares that in order to fulfill its constitutional obligation to provide indigent legal services, the state shall pay counties the full amount necessary to ensure the delivery of quality legal services for indigent criminal defendants in a consistent manner throughout the State.

S 2. Section 722-e of the county law, as added by chapter 878 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:

S 722-e. Expenses. All expenses for providing counsel and services other than counsel hereunder shall be a county charge or in the case of a county wholly located within a city a city charge to be paid out of an appropriation for such purposes AND SHALL BE REIMBURSED BY THE STATE TO THE COUNTY OR CITY PROVIDING SUCH SERVICES, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT IN THE STATE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING:
