"Breastfeeding Mothers' Bill of Rights"

6 Choosing the way you will feed your new baby is one of the important decisions you will make in preparing for your infant's arrival. Doctors 7 8 agree that for most women breastfeeding is the safest and most healthy 9 choice. It is your right to be informed about the benefits of breastfeeding and have your health care provider and maternal health care 10 facility encourage and support breastfeeding. You have the right to make 11 12 your own choice about breastfeeding. Whether you choose to breastfeed or not you have the following basic rights regardless of your race, creed, 13 national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or 14 source of payment for your health care. Maternal health care facilities 15 16 have a responsibility to ensure that you understand these rights. They 17 must provide this information clearly for you and must provide an interpreter if necessary. These rights may only be limited in cases where 18 19 your health or the health of your baby requires it. If any of the 20 following things are not medically right for you or your baby, you should be fully informed of the facts and be consulted. 21

(1) Before You Deliver, if you attend prenatal childbirth education classes provided by the maternal health care facility and all hospital clinics and diagnostic and treatment centers providing prenatal services in accordance with article 28 of the public health law you must receive
