6 the development of new employment opportunities, including opportunities
7 for self-employment, for the residents of the state.
8 2. Before proposing a rule for adoption or adopting a rule on an emer-

2 information on:

3 (i) the nature of the impact the rule will have on jobs and employment 4 opportunities;

6 the rule;

7 (iii) the approximate number of jobs or employment opportunities

12 HAVE TAKEN OR COULD TAKE to minimize any unnecessary adverse impacts on 13 existing jobs and to promote the development of new employment opportu-

16 enable it to determine whether a rule will have a substantial adverse 17 impact on jobs or employment opportunities, or to prepare a job impact 18 statement pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the agency 19 shall issue a statement indicating the information which it needs to

28 (iii) the agency has issued a statement pursuant to paragraph (c) of 29 this subdivision, and has received information from other state agencies 30 or the public which enable it to provide a more complete evaluation of 31 the potential impact of the rule on jobs and employment opportunities.

32 (e) If, after requesting the assistance of other state agencies and 33 the public pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, an agency is 34 still unable to determine whether the rule will have a substantial 35 adverse impact on jobs and employment opportunities, it may adopt the 36 rule. When adopting a rule pursuant to this paragraph, the agency shall 37 issue a revised job impact statement which includes information on the 38 measures the agency took to evaluate the potential impact of the rule on 39 jobs and employment opportunities. NO RULE MAY BE ADOPTED PURSUANT TO 40 THIS PARAGRAPH IF IT IS THE SUBJECT OF A STATEMENT OF CONCURRENCE PURSU-

(b) When the commissioner of labor and the commissioner of economic development concur in a determination that additional evaluation of the potential impact of a proposed rule on jobs and employment opportunities is needed to assist in the minimization of any unnecessary adverse impacts of the rule on jobs or employment opportunities, they shall issue a statement of concurrence and transmit a copy of such statement to the agency and to the secretary of state for publication in the state register. The statement of concurrence shall:

(i) identify each proposed rule which is the subject of the statement of concurrence;

(iv) specify a time period of not more than ninety days for the agency to perform such additional evaluation or consider such recommendations.

(c) An agency shall strive to perform such additional evaluation or consider such measures as are recommended in a statement of concurrence within the time period set forth therein. No agency shall adopt the rule which is the subject of the statement of concurrence until:
