Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares that it is the public policy of the state to assure minor children have frequent and continuing contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved their marriage and that it is in the public interest to encourage parents to share the rights and responsibilities of child-rearing in order to effectuate this policy. At the outset and thereafter, in any proceeding where there is at issue the custody of a minor child, the court may, during the pendency of the proceeding or at any time thereafter, make such order for the custody of minor children as may seem necessary or proper. The provisions of this act establish a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that shared parenting is in the best interests of minor children.

- S 2. Subdivision (a) of section 70 of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 457 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) Where a minor child is residing within this state, either parent may apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus to have such minor child brought before such court; and on the return thereof, the court, on due consideration, [may] SHALL award the natural guardianship, charge and custody of such child to [either parent] BOTH PARENTS, IN THE ABSENCE OF AN ALLEGATION THAT SUCH SHARED PARENTING WOULD BE DETRIMENTAL

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

TO SUCH CHILD, for such time, under such regulations and restrictions, and with such provisions and directions, as the case may require, and may at any time thereafter vacate or modify such order. [In all cases there shall be no prima facie right to the custody of the child in either parent, but the] THE BURDEN OF PROOF THAT SUCH SHARED PARENTING WOULD BE DETRIMENTAL TO SUCH CHILD SHALL BE UPON THE PARENT REQUESTING SOLE CUSTODY. THE court shall determine solely what is for the best interest of the child, and what will best promote [its] THE CHILD'S welfare and happiness, and make award accordingly.

- S 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 240 of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 476 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:
- 13 (a) (I) In any action or proceeding brought (1) to annul a marriage or 14 declare the nullity of a void marriage, or (2) for a separation, or 15 (3) for a divorce, or (4) to obtain, by a writ of habeas corpus or by petition and order to show cause, the custody of or right to visitation 16 17 with any child of a marriage, the court shall require verification of 18 status of any child of the marriage with respect to such child's 19 custody and support, including any prior orders, and shall enter orders for custody and support as, in the court's discretion, justice requires, 20 having regard to the circumstances of the case and of the respective 21 22 parties and to the best interests of the child and subject to provisions of subdivision one-c of this section. Where either party to 23 an action concerning custody of or a right to visitation with a child 24 25 a sworn petition or complaint or sworn answer, cross-petiin 26 tion, counterclaim or other sworn responsive pleading that the other party has committed an act of domestic violence against the party making 27 the allegation or a family or household member of either party, as such 28 29 family or household member is defined in article eight of the family 30 court act, and such allegations are proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the court must consider the effect of such domestic violence 31 32 upon the best interests of the child, together with such other facts and 33 circumstances as the court deems relevant in making a direction pursuant 34 this section and state on the record how such findings, facts and circumstances factored into the direction. If a parent makes a good 35 faith allegation based on a reasonable belief supported by facts that 36 37 the child is the victim of child abuse, child neglect, or the effects of 38 domestic violence, and if that parent acts lawfully and in good faith in 39 response to that reasonable belief to protect the child or seek treat-40 ment for the child, then that parent shall not be deprived of custody, visitation or contact with the child, or restricted in custody, visita-41 tion or contact, based solely on that belief or the reasonable actions 42 43 taken based on that belief. If an allegation that a child is abused is 44 supported by a preponderance of the evidence, then the court shall 45 consider such evidence of abuse in determining the visitation arrangement that is in the best interest of the child, and the court shall not 46 47 place a child in the custody of a parent who presents a substantial risk 48 of harm to that child, and shall state on the record how such findings 49 were factored into the determination. An order directing the payment of 50 child support shall contain the social security numbers of the named 51 parties. [In all cases there shall be no prima facie right to the custody of the child in either parent. FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSISTING THE COURT IN MAKING A DETERMINATION WHETHER AN 11 12 AWARD OF SHARED PARENTING IS APPROPRIATE, THE COURT MAY DIRECT 13 INVESTIGATION BE CONDUCTED.
