AN ACT on the application of the legislature of the state of New York petitioning the Congress of the United States of America to call a national constitutional convention to propose amendments in order to address concerns raised by the decision of the United States Supreme Court in CITIZENS UNITED V. FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION 130 S.Ct. 876

2     that:
- 3     a. the first President of the United States, George Washington, stat-
4     ed: "The basis of our political systems is the right of the people to 5     make and to alter their Constitutions of Government.";
- 6     b. it was the stated intention of the framers of the Constitution of 9     Federalist 52);

- 10    c. that dependency has evolved from a dependency on the people alone 11    to a dependency on those who spend excessively in elections, through 12    campaigns or third-party groups;
- 13    d. the United States Supreme Court ruling in CITIZENS UNITED V.
14    FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION 558 U.S. 310 (2010) removed restrictions on 15    amount of independent political spending;
- 16    e. the removal of those restrictions has resulted in the unjust influ-17    ence of powerful economic forces, which have supplanted the will of the 18    people by undermining our ability to choose our political leadership, 19    write our own laws, and determine the fate of our state; and
- 20    f. Article V of the United States Constitution requires the United 21    States Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments upon
