AN ACT to amend the New York state urban development corporation act, in relation to micro-businesses and micro loans

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 5 of section 16-t of section 1 of 2 chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban 3 development corporation act, as amended by section 1 of part II of chap-
4 ter 59 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:
5 1. The small business revolving loan fund program is hereby created.
6 The corporation is authorized, within available appropriations, to 7 provide low interest loans to community development financial insti-
8 tutions, in order to provide funding for those lending organizations'
9 loans to small businesses, AND MICRO-BUSINESSES located within New York
10 state, that generate economic growth and job creation within New York
11 state but that are unable to obtain adequate credit or adequate terms
12 for such credit. If in the discretion of the corporation the use of a 13 community development financial institution is not practicable based 14 upon the application of rules and regulations developed by the corpo-15 ration, including, but not limited to, assessments of geographic and 16 administrative capacity, then the corporation is authorized, within 17 available appropriations, to provide low interest loans to the following 18 other local community based lending organizations: small business lend-19 ing consortia, certified development companies, providers of United 20 States department of agriculture business and industrial guaranteed

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

1 loans, United States small business administration loan providers, cred-
2 it unions and community banks. As used in this section "small business"
3 means a business that is resident in New York state, independently owned 4 and operated, not dominant in its field, and employs one hundred or
5 fewer persons. AS USED IN THIS SECTION "MICRO-BUSINESS" MEANS A BUSINESS
6 THAT IS RESIDENT IN NEW YORK STATE, INDEPENDENTLY OWNED AND OPERATED, 7 AND EMPLOYS LESS THAN FIVE PEOPLE.

8 2. In order for a lending organization to be eligible to receive 9 program funds, it must have established sufficient expertise to analyze 10 small business AND MICRO-BUSINESSES applications for program loans,
11 evaluate the creditworthiness of small businesses, AND MICRO-BUSINESSES 12 and regularly monitor program loans. The lending organization shall 13 review every program loan application in order to determine, among other 14 things, the feasibility of the proposed use of the requested financing 15 by the small business OR MICRO-BUSINESS applicant, the likelihood of 16 repayment and the potential that the loan will generate economic devel-17 opment and jobs within New York state. The corporation shall identify 18 eligible lending organizations through one or more competitive statewide
19 or local solicitations. THE CORPORATION SHALL SHOW PREFERENCE IN AWARD-
20 ING PROGRAM FUNDS TO LENDING ORGANIZATIONS WHO SERVE MICRO-BUSINESSES
21 AND MICRO-LOANS.

22 3. Program loans to small businesses AND MICRO-BUSINESSES shall be 23 targeted and marketed to minority and women-owned enterprises and other 24 small businesses AND MICRO-BUSINESSES that are having difficulty access-25 ing traditional credit markets. Program loans to small businesses AND 26 MICRO-BUSINESSES shall be used for the creation and retention of jobs, 27 as defined by the corporation, including: (a) working capital; (b) the 28 acquisition and/or improvement of real property; (c) the acquisition of 29 machinery and equipment, property or improvement; or (d) the refinancing
30 of debt obligations. There shall be two categories of loans to small 31 businesses AND MICRO-BUSINESSES: a micro loan that shall have a princi-32 pal amount that is less than twenty-five thousand dollars and a regular 33 loan that shall have a principal amount not less than twenty-five thou-
34 sand dollars. Prior to receiving program funds, the lending organization 35 must certify to the corporation that such loan complies with this 36 section and rules and regulations promulgated for the program and that 37 the lending organization has performed its obligations pursuant to and 38 is in compliance with this section, the program rules and regulations
39 and all agreements entered into between the corporation and the lending
40 organization. The program funds amount used by the lending organization 41 to fund a program applicant loan shall not be more than fifty percent of 42 the principal amount of such loan. The program funds amount used by the 43 lending organization to fund a program applicant loan shall not be 44 greater than one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. Minority- and 45 women-owned business enterprises and other small businesses OR MICRO-BU-
46 SINESSES who access such program loans under this subdivision shall not 47 be precluded from accessing such short-term financing loans provided 48 under subdivision eleven of this section.

49 5. With respect to its program loans, the lending organization may 50 charge application, commitment and loan guarantee fees pursuant to a 51 schedule of fees adopted by the lending organization and approved by the 52 corporation. APPROVED MICRO-LOANS FOR FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS OR LESS 53 SHALL HAVE APPLICATIONS FEES WAIVED.

54 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
