In order to promote a spirit of patriotic and civic service and obligation and to foster in the children of the state moral and intellectual qualities which are essential in preparing to meet the obligations of citizenship in peace or in war, the regents of The University of the State of New York shall prescribe courses of instruction in patriotism, citizenship, and human rights issues, with particular attention to the study of the inhumanity of genocide, slavery (including the freedom trail and underground railroad), the Holocaust, VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN DURING PERIODS OF ARMED CONFLICT (INCLUDING THE COMFORT WOMEN OF SECOND WORLD WAR), and the mass starvation in Ireland from 1845 to 1850, be maintained and followed in all the schools of the state. The boards of education and trustees of the several cities and school districts of the state shall require instruction to be given in such courses, by the teachers employed in the schools therein. All attending such schools, over the age of eight years, shall attend upon such instruction.

3. The regents shall determine the subjects to be included in such courses of instruction in patriotism, citizenship, and human rights
