Introduced by Sen. GALLIVAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to disqualification for benefits and refusal of employment

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 593 of the labor law, as amended 2     by chapter 415 of the laws of 1983, the opening paragraph as amended by 3     section 15 of part O of chapter 57 of the laws of 2013, paragraph (a) as 4     added by chapter 589 of the laws of 1998 and paragraphs (d) and (e) as 5     amended by chapter 35 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as 6     follows:
7     2. Refusal of employment. No days of total unemployment shall be 8     deemed to occur beginning with the day on which a claimant, without good 9     cause, refuses to accept an offer of employment for which he or she is 10    reasonably fitted by training and experience, including employment not 11    subject to this article, until he or she has subsequently worked in 12    employment and earned remuneration at least equal to ten times his or 13    her weekly benefit rate. Except that claimants who are not subject to a 14    recall date or who do not obtain employment through a union hiring hall 15    and who are still unemployed after receiving ten weeks of benefits shall 16    be required to accept any employment proffered that such claimants are 17    capable of performing, provided that such employment would result in a
18    wage not less than SUCH CLAIMANT'S HIGH CALENDAR QUARTER WAGES RECEIVED
19    IN THE BASE PERIOD; OR WOULD RESULT IN A WAGE GREATER THAN eighty 20    percent of such claimant's high calendar quarter wages received in the 21    base period and not substantially less than the prevailing wage for 22    similar work in the locality as provided for in paragraph (d) of this 23    subdivision. No refusal to accept employment shall be deemed without

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets

1 good cause nor shall it disqualify any claimant otherwise eligible to 2 receive benefits if:

3 (a) a refusal to accept employment which would interfere with a claim-4 ant's right to join or retain membership in any labor organization or 5 otherwise interfere with or violate the terms of a collective bargaining
6 agreement shall be with good cause; OR

7 (b) there is a strike, lockout, or other industrial controversy in the 8 establishment in which the employment is offered; or

9 (c) the employment is at an unreasonable distance from his OR HER 10 residence, or travel to and from the place of employment involves 11 expense substantially greater than that required in his OR HER former 12 employment unless the expense be provided for; or

13 (d) THE WAGES AND COMPENSATION ARE LESS THAN SUCH CLAIMANT'S HIGH
14 CALENDAR QUARTER WAGES AND COMPENSATION RECEIVED, the wages or compen-15 sation [or hours or conditions] offered are substantially less favorable
16 to the claimant than those prevailing for similar work in the locality,
17 or are such as tend to depress wages [or working conditions]; OR

18 (E) THE HOURS OR CONDITIONS OFFERED ARE SUBSTANTIALLY LESS FAVORABLE
19 TO THE CLAIMANT THAN THOSE PREVAILING FOR SIMILAR WORK IN THE LOCALITY, 20 OR ARE SUCH AS TEND TO DEPRESS WORKING CONDITIONS; or

21 [(e)] (F) the claimant is seeking part-time work as provided in subdi-22 vision five of section five hundred ninety-six of this title and the 23 offer of employment is not comparable to his or her part-time work as 24 defined in such subdivision.

25 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
