16 f. To discriminate against a married person because such person
17 neither uses nor is known by the surname of his or her spouse.

18 This paragraph shall not apply to any situation where the use of a 19 surname would constitute or result in a criminal act.

20 2. Without limiting the generality of subdivision one of this section, 21 it shall be considered discriminatory if, because of an applicant's or 22 class of applicants' race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orien-23 tation, genetic information, military status, age, sex, marital status 24 or disability, or familial status, (i) an applicant or class of appli-25 cants is denied credit in circumstances where other applicants of like 26 overall credit worthiness are granted credit, or (ii) special require-27 ments or conditions, such as requiring co-obligors or reapplication upon 28 marriage, are imposed upon an applicant or class of applicants in 29 circumstances where similar requirements or conditions are not imposed 30 upon other applicants of like overall credit worthiness.

31 3. It shall not be considered discriminatory if credit differen-
32 tiations or decisions are based upon factually supportable, objective 33 differences in applicants' overall credit worthiness, which may include 34 reference to such factors as current income, assets and prior credit 35 history of such applicants, as well as reference to any other relevant 36 factually supportable data; provided, however, that no creditor shall 37 consider, in evaluating the credit worthiness of an applicant, aggregate 38 statistics or assumptions relating to race, creed, color, national 39 origin, sexual orientation, genetic information, military status, sex, 40 marital status or disability, or to the likelihood of any group of 41 persons bearing or rearing children, or for that reason receiving dimin-42 ished or interrupted income in the future.

43 § 14. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 296-b of the executive

45 follows:

46 (b) Subject a domestic worker to unwelcome harassment based on gender, 47 race, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information or national 48 origin, where such harassment has the purpose or effect of unreasonably 49 interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intim-50 idating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

51 § 15. Section 40-c of the civil rights law, as amended by chapter 2 of 52 the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

53 § 40-c. Discrimination. 1. All persons within the jurisdiction of this 54 state shall be entitled to the equal protection of the laws of this 55 state or any subdivision thereof.

1 2. No person shall, because of race, creed, color, national origin,
2 sex, marital status, sexual orientation, genetic information, or disa-3 bility, as such term is defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the 4 executive law, be subjected to any discrimination in his or her civil 5 rights, or to any harassment, as defined in section 240.25 of the penal 6 law, in the exercise thereof, by any other person or by any firm, corpo-7 ration or institution, or by the state or any agency or subdivision of 8 the state.

9 § 16. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 313 of the education 10 law, as amended by chapter 2 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as 11 follows:

12 (a) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state that the Amer-13 ican ideal of equality of opportunity requires that students, otherwise 14 qualified, be admitted to educational institutions and be given access 15 to all the educational programs and courses operated or provided by such 16 institutions without regard to race, color, sex, religion, creed, mari-17 tal status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two hundred 18 ninety-two of the executive law, genetic information as defined in 19 section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or national origin, 20 except that, with regard to religious or denominational educational 21 institutions, students, otherwise qualified, shall have the equal oppor-
22 tunity to attend therein without discrimination because of race, color, 23 sex, marital status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two 24 hundred ninety-two of the executive law, genetic information as defined 25 in section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or national 26 origin. It is a fundamental American right for members of various reli-27 gious faiths to establish and maintain educational institutions exclu-28 sively or primarily for students of their own religious faith or to 29 effectuate the religious principles in furtherance of which they are 30 maintained. Nothing herein contained shall impair or abridge that right.

31 § 17. Subdivision 3 of section 313 of the education law, as amended by 32 chapter 2 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

33 (3) Unfair educational practices. It shall be an unfair educational

35 teen hundred forty-eight:

36 (a) To exclude or limit or otherwise discriminate against any person 37 or persons seeking admission as students to such institution or to any 38 educational program or course operated or provided by such institution 39 because of race, religion, creed, sex, color, marital status, age, sexu-40 al orientation as defined in section two hundred ninety-two of the exec-41 utive law, genetic information as defined in section two hundred nine-42 ty-two of the executive law, or national origin; except that nothing in 43 this section shall be deemed to affect, in any way, the right of a reli-
44 gious or denominational educational institution to select its students 45 exclusively or primarily from members of such religion or denomination 46 or from giving preference in such selection to such members or to make 47 such selection of its students as is calculated by such institution to 48 promote the religious principles for which it is established or main-49 tained. Nothing herein contained shall impair or abridge the right of an 50 independent institution, which establishes or maintains a policy of 51 educating persons of one sex exclusively, to admit students of only one 52 sex.

53 (b) To penalize any individual because he or she has initiated, testi-54 fied, participated or assisted in any proceedings under this section.

55 (c) To accept any endowment or gift of money or property conditioned 56 upon teaching the doctrine of supremacy of any particular race.

1 (d) With respect to any individual who withdraws from attendance to 2 serve on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in time of 3 war, including any individual who withdrew from attendance on or after 4 August second, nineteen hundred ninety to serve on active duty in the 5 armed forces of the United States in the Persian Gulf conflict: (i) to 6 deny or limit the readmission of such individual to such institution or 7 to any educational program or course operated or provided by such insti-8 tution because of such withdrawal from attendance or because of the 9 failure to complete any educational program or course due to such with-10 drawal; (ii) to impose any academic penalty on such person because of 11 such withdrawal or because of the failure to complete any educational 12 program or course due to such withdrawal; (iii) to reduce or eliminate 13 any financial aid award granted to such individual which could not be 14 used, in whole or part, because of such withdrawal or because of the 15 failure to complete any educational program or course due to such with-16 drawal; or (iv) to fail to provide a credit or refund of tuition and 17 fees paid by such individual for any semester, term or quarter not 18 completed because of such withdrawal or because of the failure to 19 complete any program or course due to such withdrawal.

20 (e) It shall not be an unfair educational practice for any educational 21 institution to use criteria other than race, religion, creed, sex, 22 color, marital status, age, sexual orientation as defined in section two
23 hundred ninety-two of the executive law, genetic information as defined
24 section two hundred ninety-two of the executive law, or national origin
25 in the admission of students to such institution or to any of the educa-26 tional programs and courses operated or provided by such institution.

27 § 18. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 28 have become a law.
