Introduced by M. of A. SEAWRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to creating the New York state civilian complaint review board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new article 43 to 2 read as follows:

ARTICLE 43

NEW YORK STATE CIVILIAN COMPLAINT REVIEW BOARD

5 Section 930. New York state civilian complaint review board.

6 § 930. New York state civilian complaint review board. 1. Legislative 7 intent. It is in the interest of the people of the state of New York and 8 police departments and peace officers throughout the state that the 9 investigation of complaints concerning misconduct by officers towards 10 members of the public be complete, thorough and impartial. These 11 inquiries must be conducted fairly and independently, and in a manner in 12 which the public and the police have confidence. An independent civilian 13 complaint review board is hereby established as a body comprised solely 14 of members of the public with the authority to investigate allegations 15 of misconduct as provided in this section.

16 2. Definitions. (a) As used in this section, the term "officer" shall 17 mean "police officers" as defined in paragraphs (a), (e), (f), (h), (j), 18 (k), (l), (m), (p), (q), (s), and (v) of subdivision thirty-four of 19 section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law and "peace officers" as 20 defined in subdivisions three, four, five, six, eight, twelve, thirteen, 21 fifteen, sixteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-22 four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-nine, thirty-two, 23 thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-eight, forty,
24 forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, fifty-two, fifty-nine, sixty-one, 25 sixty-two, sixty-eight, seventy-four, seventy-nine, and eighty-two of 26 section 2.10 of the criminal procedure law.

27 (b) As used in this section "board" shall mean the New York state 28 civilian complaint review board.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD08502-01-7

1 (c) As used in this section, "investigator" shall mean an investigator 2 as appointed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision three of 3 this section.

4 3. Appointments. (a) The board shall consist of nine members; three, 5 including the chair, as selected by the governor; and six members to be 6 appointed by the governor upon the recommendations, respectively, of the 7 attorney general, the comptroller, the temporary president of the 8 senate, the minority leader of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, 9 and the minority leader of the assembly. Any vacancy in the board shall 10 be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original 11 appointment.

12 (b) No member of the board shall hold any other public office or 13 employment. No members shall have experience as law enforcement profes-
14 sionals. For the purposes of this section, experience as a law enforce-15 ment professional shall include experience as a peace officer, police 16 officer, criminal investigator, special agent, or a managerial or super-17 visory employee who exercised substantial policy discretion on law
18 enforcement matters, in a federal, state, or local law enforcement agen-
19 cy, other than experience as an attorney in a prosecutorial agency.

20 (c) The members of the board shall be appointed for terms of three 21 years.

22 (d) Each member of the board shall be entitled to reimbursement for 23 his or her actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of 24 his or her official duties and a per diem allowance of one hundred fifty 25 dollars when rendering service as a member; provided that the aggregate 26 of such per diem allowance to any one member in any one fiscal year of 27 the board shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

28 4. Powers and duties of the board. (a) The board shall appoint an 29 executive director who shall act in accordance with the policies of the 30 board.

31 (b) The board is authorized, within appropriations available therefor, 32 to appoint such employees as are necessary to exercise its powers and 33 fulfill its duties. The board shall appoint investigators to investigate
34 civilian complaints. Such investigators shall have investigative experi-35 ence as a condition of their appointment by the board.

36 (c) The board shall have the power to adopt, amend and rescind rules 37 and regulations to govern procedures of the board in accordance with 38 this section.

39 (d) The board shall have the power to subpoena and require the attend-40 ance in this state of witnesses and the production of books and papers 41 pertinent to the investigation and inquiries hereby authorized and to 42 examine them and such public records as it shall require relating to any 43 such matter. A subpoena issued pursuant to this action shall be regu-44 lated by the civil practice law and rules.

45 (e) The board may also offer, but may not require, mediation by an 46 experienced mediator between a complainant and a subject officer as an 47 alternative to investigation and discipline. The board shall set guide-48 lines to determine cases appropriate for mediation.

49 5. Complaint review procedure. (a) Complaints may be initiated by any 50 person whether or not that person is a victim of, or a witness to, an 51 incident alleging the use of excessive force or abuse of authority. A 52 complaint may also be initiated by the board, upon a majority vote ther-53 eof, if the board determines that there is a clear public interest in 54 doing so.

55 (b) The board must take reasonable measures to ensure the confiden-
56 tiality of all complainants.

1 (c) All complaints, other than those in which both the complainant and 2 the subject officer agree to mediation, shall be assigned to an investi-
3 gator, who shall take such steps as are necessary to investigate the 4 complaint, including obtaining a statement from the complainant, witness 5 statements, documentary evidence, and interviews with subject officers.
6 When the investigation is complete, it shall be forwarded to the board, 7 or a panel consisting of at least three members of the board, which 8 shall read the case, review all of the evidence and vote on the disposi-9 tion of each allegation raised by the complaint.

10 (d) The board's vote on each allegation brought before it shall result 11 in one of the following dispositions:

12 (i) Substantiated; a finding that there is sufficient credible
13 evidence to believe that the subject officer committed the act charged 14 in the allegation constituting misconduct;

15 (ii) Exonerated; a finding that the subject officer was found to have 16 committed the act alleged, but the subject officer's actions were deter-17 mined to be lawful and proper;

18 (iii) Unfounded; a finding that there is sufficient credible evidence 19 to believe that the subject officer did not commit the alleged act of 20 misconduct;

21 (iv) Unsubstantiated; a finding that the weight of the available
22 evidence is insufficient to substantiate, exonerate or unfound the alle-
23 gation;

24 (v) Officer or officers unidentified; a finding that the board was 25 unable to identify the subject or subjects of the alleged misconduct; or

26 (vi) Miscellaneous; a finding that the subject of the allegation is no
27 longer an officer.

28 (e) If any of the allegations are substantiated, the board shall 29 forward the case to the subject officer's employer, and may recommend to 30 the employer appropriate disciplinary action. If, within thirty days of 31 a case being forwarded for discipline, no disciplinary action is taken 32 by an officer's employer with respect to the substantiated allegations
33 of misconduct, the board shall forward the case to the district attorney 34 for the jurisdiction in which the misconduct occurred.

35 (f) Except in extenuating circumstances, all investigations shall be 36 completed within six months of the date when the complaint was initi-
37 ated.

38 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
