AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to increasing the amount of the exemption permitted for capital improvements to residential buildings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 421-f of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 590 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

(iii) [~~Such~~] For exemptions granted pursuant to this section and authorized by a local law or resolution adopted prior to January first, two thousand nineteen, such exemption shall be limited to eighty thousand dollars in increased market value, or such other sum less than eighty thousand dollars, but not less than five thousand dollars as may be provided by the local law or resolution, of the property attributable to such reconstruction, alteration or improvement and any increase in market value greater than such amount shall not be eligible for the exemption pursuant to this section. For exemptions granted pursuant to this section and authorized by a local law or resolution adopted on or after January first, two thousand nineteen, such exemption shall be limited to two hundred thousand dollars in increased market value, or such other sum less than two hundred thousand dollars, but not less than five thousand dollars as may be provided by the local law or resolution, of the property attributable to such reconstruction, alteration or improvement and any increase in market value greater than such amount shall not be eligible for the exemption pursuant to this section. For the purposes of this section, the market value of the reconstruction, alteration or improvement shall be equal to the increased assessed value attributable to such reconstruction, alteration or improvement divided by the class I ratio in a special assessing unit or the most recently established state equalization rate or special equalization rate in the remainder of the state, except where the state equalization rate or
