§ 7504. [Court appointment] Appointment of arbitrator. (a) If an 4 arbitration agreement provides for the method of appointment of an arbi-5 trator, such arbitrator must be a neutral third-party arbitrator; 6 provided, however, that any portion of an agreement or contract requir-7 ing the controversy concerning employment be submitted to an arbitrator 8 or arbitration organization that is not a neutral third-party arbitrator, shall be deemed void. The requirement that the controversy be heard by a neutral third-party arbitrator may not be waived by a party prior to the service on such party of a demand for arbitration.

(b) If the arbitration agreement does not provide for a method of 13 appointment of an arbitrator, or if the agreed method fails or for any 14 reason is not followed, or if an arbitrator fails to act and his or her successor has not been appointed, the court, on application of a party, shall appoint [an] a neutral third-party arbitrator. Appointment of any arbitrator shall reasonably ensure the personal objectivity of the arbitrator.

(c) 1. Before the appointment of an individual who is requested to serve as an arbitrator, and after making a reasonable inquiry, such individual shall disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate 22 and the arbitration proceeding, and to any other arbitrators, any known 23 facts that a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the 24 impartiality of the arbitrator in the arbitration proceeding, including: (i) a financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration 26 proceeding; or EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

(ii) an existing or past relationship with any of the parties to the agreement to arbitrate or the arbitration proceeding, his or her counsel or representatives, a witness, or another arbitrator.

- 2. An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate and any arbitration proceeding, and to any other arbitrators any facts that the arbitrator learns after accepting appointment which a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator.
- 3. If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by paragraph one or two of this subdivision and a party timely objects to the appointment or continued service of the arbitrator based upon the fact disclosed, the objection may be a ground for vacating an award made by the arbitrator pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph one of subdivision (b) of section seventy-five hundred eleven of this chapter.
- 4. If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by paragraph one or two of this subdivision, upon timely objection by a party, the court may vacate an award based on such non-disclosure pursuant to section seventy-five hundred eleven of this chapter.
- 5. An arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator who does not disclose a known, direct and material interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a known, existing and substantial relationship with a party is presumed to act with evident partiality in rendering an award.
- (d) Upon disclosure pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section, a party shall be deemed to have waived any objection to the arbitrator or composition of any arbitration panel, by failing to raise same prior to the commencement of the arbitration hearing.
- § 2. Section 7506 of the civil practice law and rules is amended to read as follows:
- § 7506. Hearing. (a) Oath of arbitrator. Before hearing any testimony, an arbitrator shall be sworn to hear and decide the controversy faithfully and fairly by an officer authorized to administer an oath.
- (b) Time and place. The arbitrator shall appoint a time and place for the hearing and notify the parties in writing personally or by registered or certified mail not less than eight days before the hearing. The arbitrator may adjourn or postpone the hearing. The court, upon application of any party, may direct the arbitrator to proceed promptly with the hearing and determination of the controversy.
- (c) Evidence. The parties are entitled to be heard, to present evidence and to cross-examine witnesses.
- (d) Postponements and adjournments. The arbitrator may for good cause postpone or adjourn the hearing upon request of a party or upon the arbitrator's own initiative. Notwithstanding the failure of a party duly notified to appear, the arbitrator may hear and determine the controversy upon the evidence produced. If a party to an arbitration intends to present testimony from a witness at the hearing, absent good cause shown, the identity of such witness must be provided to all parties at least seven calendar days prior to the hearing.
- [(d)] (e) Representation by attorney. A party has the right to be present, and be represented by an attorney and may claim such right at any time as to any part of the arbitration or hearings which have not yet taken place. This right may not be waived. If a party is represented by an attorney, papers to be served on the party shall be served upon 54 his or her attorney. It shall be within the arbitrator's discretion to permit the attendance of any other persons.

[(e)] (f) Determination by majority. The hearing shall be conducted by all the arbitrators, but a majority may determine any question and render an award.

- [(f)] (g) Waiver. Except as provided in subdivision [(d)] (e) of this section, a requirement of this section may be waived by written consent of the parties and it is waived if the parties continue with the arbitration without objection.
- § 3. Section 7507 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 952 of the laws of 1981, is amended to read as follows:
- § 7507. Award; form; time; delivery. (a) Except as provided in section 7508, the award shall be in writing, and shall state the issues in dispute and contain the arbitrator's findings of fact and conclusions of law. Such award shall contain a decision on all issues submitted to the arbitrator, and shall be [signed and affirmed] executed under oath or affirmed pursuant to rule twenty-one hundred six of this chapter if applicable by the arbitrator making it within the time fixed by the agreement, or, if the time is not fixed, within such time as the court orders.
- (b) The parties may in writing extend the time either before or after its expiration. A party waives the objection that an award was not made within the time required unless he or she notifies the arbitrator in writing of his or her objection prior to the delivery of the award to him or her.
- (c) The arbitrator shall deliver a copy of the award to each party in the manner provided in the agreement, or, if no provision is so made, personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.
- § 4. Subparagraph (iv) of paragraph 1 of subdivision (b) of section 7511 of the civil practice law and rules is amended and a new subparagraph (v) is added to read as follows:
- (iv) failure to follow the procedure of this article, unless the party 31 applying to vacate the award continued with the arbitration with notice 32 of the defect and without objection[-]; or
- (v) the arbitrator evidenced a manifest disregard of the law in 33 rendering the award. 34
- 35 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 36 arbitration proceedings held on or after such effective date.
