Introduced by M. of A. LENTOL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to extending certain filing deadlines for the industrial and commercial abatement program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 5 of section 489-ccccc of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 397 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Final application. Applicants shall file a final application for 5 benefits no later than one year from the date of issuance of the first 6 building permit for construction work, or, where construction work does not require a building permit, no later than one year from the date of 7 commencement of construction. Abatement benefits shall not be granted until the applicant files the final application. If the final applica-10 tion is not filed within such one year period, abatement benefits shall 11 not be granted until such application is filed, and the department may 12 delay the granting of such benefits, at the department's discretion, to 13 investigate the reason for the late filing. The department shall accept 14 applications from applicants who (A) after the effective date of local 15 law number sixty-seven of the city of New York for the year two thousand 16 eight, met the requirements of this title but failed to file a final 17 application within the time frame required by this subparagraph and (B) 18 file a final application no later than three months from the effective 19 date of the chapter of the laws of two thousand eighteen that amended 20 this subparagraph.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
