§ 90. Penalties. 1. Every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of this state, subjects, or 10 causes to be subjected, any citizen of this state or other person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, 11 or immunities secured by the constitution and laws of this state, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress, except that in any action brought against a judicial officer for an act or omission taken in such officer's judicial capacity, injunctive relief shall not be granted unless a declaratory decree was violated or declaratory relief was unavailable.

2. The supreme court of the state of New York shall have jurisdiction over all suits brought for the vindication of civil rights as provided 20 in subdivision one of this section. To the extent that the laws of the 21 state of New York furnish a remedy for the vindication of such civil rights, such laws shall be applied; but in all cases where such laws are deficient in the provisions necessary to furnish suitable remedies, the 24 common law shall be extended to and govern the said courts in the trial 25 and disposition of the matter.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

(a) In any action or proceeding to enforce this section or the New York human rights law, the court must award the prevailing party, other than the United States, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs, except that in any action brought against a judicial officer for an act or omission taken in such officer's judicial capacity such officer shall not be held liable for any costs, including attorney's fees, unless such action was clearly in excess of such officer's jurisdiction.

- (b) In awarding an attorney's fee under paragraph (a) of this subdivision in any action or proceeding to enforce a provision of this article, the court shall include reasonable expert fees as part of the attorney's fee.
- This article shall supplement and not displace any jurisdiction currently existing in the courts or administrative agencies of this 14 state to the extent that other laws of this state already provide a remedy for the type of injury referred to in this section.
- 5. In interpreting this section, the courts shall apply the same 16 17 fundamental principles already enunciated by the federal courts in interpreting 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, which are the parallel federal 18 civil rights laws. 19
- 20 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 21 have become a law.
