Introduced by M. of A. SANTABARBARA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments

AN ACT to amend the village law and the public officers law, in relation to authorizing the village of St. Johnsville to hire a village clerk/treasurer and code enforcement officer who is not a resident of such village

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 3-300 of the village law is amended by adding a new subdivision 28 to read as follows:

28. Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter or any other general law, local law, ordinance or special act, the village board of trustees of the incorporated village of St. Johnsville, Montgomery county, may, by resolution, provide that the village clerk/treasurer and code enforcement officer of the village of St. Johnsville, Montgomery county, need not be a resident of said village, but must be a resident of the county in which such village is located or an adjoining county within the state of New York.

§ 2. Section 3 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new subdivision 67 to read as follows:

67. In the village of St. Johnsville, in the county of Montgomery, the provisions of this section requiring a person to be a resident of the political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state for which he or she shall be chosen or within which his or her official functions are required to be exercised, shall not prevent a person from holding the office of village clerk/treasurer and code enforcement officer of the village of St. Johnsville, provided that such person resides in the county in which such village is located or an adjoining county within the state of New York. Provided, however, the person performing the functions of village clerk/treasurer and code enforcement officer in any other village shall be a resident of such village, unless otherwise provided by an act of the state legislature.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
