10 § 5. Section 213-a of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows: 11

§ 213-a. Actions to be commenced within four years; residential rent 12 overcharge. An action on a residential rent overcharge shall be 13 14 commenced within four years of the first overcharge alleged and no 15 determination of an overcharge and no award or calculation of an award 16 of the amount of any overcharge may be based upon an overcharge having 17 occurred more than four years before the action is commenced. This section shall preclude examination of the rental history of the housing 18 accommodation prior to the four-year period immediately preceding the 19 20 commencement of the action; provided however, for any year in which an 21 owner or a landlord who is required to file an annual rent registration 22 statement, has failed to timely file such annual rent registration statement, a court of competent jurisdiction shall consider such year or 23 24 years when determining the current legal regulated rent.

25 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall apply to any 26 action or proceeding pending in any court or any application, complaint 27 or proceeding before an administrative agency on the effective date of 28 this act, as well as any action or proceeding commenced thereafter; 29 provided, however, that:

30 (a) the amendments to subdivision a of section 26-516 of the adminis-31 trative code of the city of New York made by section one of this act 32 shall expire on the same date as such law expires and shall not affect 33 the expiration of such section as provided under section 26-520 of such 34 code; and

35 (b) the amendments to the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen 36 seventy-four made by sections three and four of this act shall expire on 37 the same date as such act expires and shall not affect the expiration of 38 such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974.
