AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York and the real property tax law, in relation to increasing the average assessed value threshold; and to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the eligibility for J-51 tax abatements to reflect cost of living adjustments

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph 3 of subdivision d of 2 section 11-243 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as
3 amended by local law number 49 of the city of New York for the year
4 1993, is amended to read as follows:
5 (ii) is owned as a condominium and is occupied as the residence or 6 home of three or more families living independently of each other;
7 provided, however, that, in addition to all other conditions of eligi-
8 bility for the benefits of this section, except for multiple dwellings
9 in which units have been newly created by substantial rehabilitation of 10 vacant buildings or conversions of non-residential buildings, the avail-
11 ability of benefits under this section for such multiple dwellings,
12 buildings or structures shall be conditioned on the following: (a) 13 alterations or improvements to at least one building-wide system are 14 part of the application for benefits, and (b) (i) the assessed valuation 15 of such multiple dwelling, building, or structure, including land, shall 16 not exceed an average of [~~thirty~~ fifty] thousand dollars per dwelling unit at the time of the commencement of the alterations or improvements, and (ii) during the three years immediately preceding the commencement of the alterations or improvements the average per room sale price of the dwelling units or the stock allocated to such dwelling units shall have been no greater than thirty-five percent of the maximum mortgage amount for a single family home eligible for purchase by the Federal National Mortgage Association; provided that if less than ten percent of the dwelling units or an amount of stock less than the amount allocable to ten percent of such dwelling units was not transferred during such preceding three year period, eligibility for benefits shall be conditioned upon the multiple dwelling, building, or structure having an assessed valuation per dwelling unit of no more than twenty-five thousand dollars at the time of the commencement of the alterations or improvements. Provided, further, that such benefits shall be available only for alterations or improvements commenced on or after June first, nineteen hundred eighty-six.

§ 2. The opening paragraph of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 489 of the real property tax law, as amended by section 19 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

Any city to which the multiple dwelling law is applicable, acting through its local legislative body or other governing agency, is hereby authorized and empowered, to and including January first, two thousand ~~nineteen~~ twenty-two, to adopt and amend local laws or ordinances providing that any increase in assessed valuation of real property shall be exempt from taxation for local purposes, as provided herein, to the extent such increase results from:

§ 3. The closing paragraph of subparagraph 6 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 489 of the real property tax law, as amended by section 20 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

Such conversion, alterations or improvements shall be completed within thirty months after the date on which same shall be started except that such thirty month limitation shall not apply to conversions of residential units which are registered with the loft board in accordance with article seven-C of the multiple dwelling law pursuant to subparagraph one of this paragraph. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a sixty month period for completion shall be available for alterations or improvements undertaken by a housing development fund company organized pursuant to article eleven of the private housing finance law, which are carried out with the substantial assistance of grants, loans or subsidies from any federal, state or local governmental agency or instrumentality or which are carried out in a property transferred from such city if alterations and improvements are completed within seven years after the date of transfer. In addition, the local housing agency is hereby empowered to grant an extension of the period of completion for any project carried out with the substantial assistance of grants, loans or subsidies from any federal, state or local governmental agency or instrumentality, if such alterations or improvements are completed within sixty months from commencement of construction. Provided, further, that such conversion, alterations or improvements shall in any event be completed prior to June thirtieth, two thousand ~~nineteen~~ twenty-two. Exemption for conversions, alterations or improvements pursuant to subparagraph one, two, three or four of this paragraph shall continue for a period not to exceed fourteen years and begin no sooner than the first quarterly tax bill immediately following the completion of such conversion, alterations or improvements. Exemption for alterations or improvements pursuant to this subparagraph or subparagraph five of this paragraph shall continue for a period not to exceed thirty-four years and shall begin no sooner than the first quarterly tax bill immediately following the completion of such alterations or improvements. Such exemption shall be equal to the increase in the valuation which is subject to exemption in full or proportionally under this subdivision for ten or thirty years, whichever is applicable. After such period of time, the amount of such exempted assessed valuation of such improvements shall be reduced by twenty percent in each succeeding year until the assessed value of the improvements are fully taxable. Provided, however, exemption for any conversion, alterations or improvements which are aided by a loan or grant under article eight, eight-A, eleven, twelve, fifteen or twenty-two of the private housing finance law, section six hundred ninety-six-a or section ninety-nine-h of the general municipal law, or section three hundred twelve of the housing act of nineteen hundred sixty-four (42 U.S.C.A. 1452b), or the Cranston-Gonzalez national affordable housing act (42 U.S.C.A. 12701 et. seq.), or started after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-three by a housing development fund company organized pursuant to article eleven of the private housing finance law which are carried out with the substantial assistance of grants, loans or subsidies from any federal, state or local governmental agency or instrumentality or which are carried out in a property transferred from any city and where alterations and improvements are completed within seven years after the date of transfer may commence at the beginning of any tax quarter subsequent to the start of such conversion, alterations or improvements and prior to the completion of such conversion, alterations or improvements.

§ 4. Subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 17 of section 489 of the real property tax law, as added by chapter 388 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

(iv) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the assessed value limitation shall not at any time exceed [~~thirty-five~~ fifty] thousand dollars.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
