AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a small business tax credit for the employment of disabled persons; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 53 to read as follows:

53. Small business tax credit; disabled persons. (a) General. A taxpayer who has one hundred employees or less, shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subdivision, against the tax imposed by this article for each disabled person hired during a taxable year, provided that such disabled person is employed for thirty-five hours or more per week and remains in the employ of such taxpayer for twelve months or more.

(b) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal five thousand dollars per hired disabled person but shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

(c) Carryovers. The credit allowed under this subdivision may be claimed and if not fully used in the initial year for which the credit is claimed may be carried over, in order, to each of the five succeeding taxable years. The credit authorized by this subdivision may not be used to reduce the tax liability of the credit claimant below zero.

(d) Definitions. As used in this subdivision, the term "disabled person" shall mean a person who suffers from any physical, mental or medical impairment resulting from anatomical, physiological, genetic or neurological conditions which prevents the exercise of a normal bodily function or is demonstrable by medically accepted clinical or laboratory diagnostic techniques.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

(e) Aggregate amount. The aggregate amount of tax credits allowed pursuant to the authority of this subdivision and subsection (jjj) of section six hundred six of this chapter shall be five million dollars each year. Such aggregate amounts of credits shall be allocated by the commissioner. If the total amount of allocated credits applied for in any particular year exceeds the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for such year under this section, such excess shall be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year.

(f) Claim of credit. A taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim this credit to the extent the basis of the calculation of this credit has been claimed for another tax credit under this chapter.

§ 2. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliv) to read as follows:

(xliv) Small business tax credit;	Amount of credit under
disabled persons under	subdivision fifty-three
subsection (jjj)	of section two hundred
	ten-B

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (jjj) to read as follows:

(jjj) Small business tax credit; disabled persons. (1) General. A taxpayer who has one hundred employees or less, shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subsection, against the tax imposed by this article for each disabled person hired during a taxable year, provided that such disabled person is employed for thirty-five hours or more per week and remains in the employ of such taxpayer for twelve months or more.

(2) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall equal five thousand dollars per hired disabled person but shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

(3) Carryovers. The credit allowed under this subsection may be claimed and if not fully used in the initial year for which the credit is claimed may be carried over, in order, to each of the five succeeding taxable years. The credit authorized by this subsection may not be used to reduce the tax liability of the credit claimant below zero.

(4) Definitions. As used in this subsection, the term "disabled person" shall mean a person who suffers from any physical, mental or medical impairment resulting from anatomical, physiological, genetic or neurological conditions which prevents the exercise of a normal bodily function or is demonstrable by medically accepted clinical or laboratory diagnostic techniques.

(5) Aggregate amount. The aggregate amount of tax credits allowed pursuant to the authority of this subsection and subdivision fifty-three of section two hundred ten-B of this chapter shall be five million dollars each year. Such aggregate amounts of credits shall be allocated by the commissioner. If the total amount of allocated credits applied for in any particular year exceeds the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for such year under this section, such excess shall be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year.

(6) Claim of credit. A taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim this credit to the extent the basis of the calculation of this credit has been claimed for another tax credit under this chapter.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2019 and shall expire and be deemed repealed December 31, 2024.
