AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to enacting the "patient privacy protection act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "patient privacy protection act".

3 Section 3102 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new subdivision (c-1) to read as follows:

(c-1) Ex-parte interviews. In any action involving personal injury, medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, or wrongful death, no party or anyone acting on behalf of a party may either directly or indirectly conduct ex-parte interviews with the treating physicians or other health 9 care providers of any other party. Nothing in this subdivision shall 10 prohibit an attorney or the agent or employee of an attorney who represents the patient, the estate of the patient, or the natural or duly 11 appointed guardian of the patient whose condition is at issue in the 13 action from conducting ex-parte conversations with a treating physician 14 or other health care provider of the patient.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 15 16 have become a law and shall apply to all actions involving personal injury, medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, or wrongful death 17 filed on and after such date and to all such actions pending on such 18 19 effective date except as to conduct prohibited by section two of this 20 act which occurred prior to such effective date.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
