AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to prohibiting employers from discriminating against victims of domestic violence; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 34 of section 292 of the executive law is REPEALED and a new subdivision 34 is added to read as follows:

34. The term "victim of domestic violence" shall have the same meaning as is ascribed to such term by section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law.

§ 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 365 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

(a) For an employer or licensing agency, because of an individual's age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence [~~victim status~~], to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

§ 3. Section 296 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 22 to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.

22. (a) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer or licensing agency, because of any individual's status as a victim of domestic violence, to refuse to hire or employ or license or to bar or to discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

(b) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer or employment agency to print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for employment or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to status as a victim of domestic violence, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification or discrimination; provided, however, that no provision of this subdivision shall be construed to prohibit the employer from making any inquiry or obtaining information for the purpose of providing assistance to, or a reasonable accommodation in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision to, a victim of domestic violence.

(c)(1) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer to refuse to provide a reasonable accommodation to an employee who is known by the employer to be a victim of domestic violence, limited to those accommodations set forth in subparagraph two of this paragraph, when such employee must be absent from work for a reasonable time, unless such absence would cause an undue hardship to the employer as set forth in subparagraph three of this paragraph, provided, however that the employer may require an employee to charge any time off pursuant to this section against any leave with pay ordinarily granted, where available, unless otherwise provided for in a collective bargaining agreement or existing employee handbook or policy, and any such absence that cannot be charged may be treated as leave without pay. An employee who must be absent from work in accordance with subparagraph two of this paragraph shall be entitled to the continuation of any health insurance coverage provided by the employer, to which the employee is otherwise entitled during any such absence.

(2) An employer is required to provide a reasonable accommodation to an employee who is a victim of domestic violence who must be absent from work for a reasonable time, in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph one of this paragraph, limited to the following:

(i) Seeking medical attention for injuries caused by domestic violence including for a child who is a victim of domestic violence, provided that the employee is not the perpetrator of the domestic violence against the child; or

(ii) Obtaining services from a domestic violence shelter, program, or rape crisis center as a result of domestic violence; or

(iii) Obtaining psychological counseling related to an incident or incidents of domestic violence, including for a child who is a victim of domestic violence, provided that the employee is not the perpetrator of the domestic violence against the child; or

(iv) Participating in safety planning and taking other actions to increase safety from future incidents of domestic violence, including temporary or permanent relocation; or

(v) Obtaining legal services, assisting in the prosecution of the offense, or appearing in court in relation to the incident or incidents of domestic violence.

(3) An employer is required to provide a reasonable accommodation for an employee's absence in accordance with the provisions of subparagraphs

1 one and two of this paragraph unless the employer can demonstrate that
2 the employee's absence would constitute an undue hardship to the employ-
3 er. A determination of whether such an absence will constitute an undue 4 hardship shall include consideration of factors such as:

5 (i) The overall size of the business, program or enterprise with 6 respect to the number of employees, number and type of facilities, and 7 size of budget; and

8 (ii) The type of operation in which the business, program or enter-
9 prise is engaged, including the composition and structure of the work-
10 force.

11 (4) An employee who must be absent from work in accordance with the 12 provisions of subparagraph one of this paragraph shall provide the 13 employer with reasonable advance notice of the employee's absence,
14 unless such advance notice is not feasible.

15 (5) An employee who must be absent from work in accordance with the 16 provisions of subparagraph one of this paragraph and who cannot feasibly
17 give reasonable advance notice of the absence in accordance with subpar-
18 agraph four of this paragraph must, within a reasonable time after the 19 absence, provide a certification to the employer when requested by the 20 employer.

21 Such certification shall be in the form of:

22 (i) A police report indicating that the employee or his or her child
23 was a victim of domestic violence;

24 (ii) A court order protecting or separating the employee or his or her
25 child from the perpetrator of an act of domestic violence;

26 (iii) Other evidence from the court or prosecuting attorney that the 27 employee appeared in court; or

28 (iv) Documentation from a medical professional, domestic violence
29 advocate, health care provider, or counselor that the employee or his or 30 her child was undergoing counseling or treatment for physical or mental 31 injuries or abuse resulting in victimization from an act of domestic 32 violence.

33 (6) Where an employee has a physical or mental disability resulting 34 from an incident or series of incidents of domestic violence, such 35 employee shall be treated in the same manner as an employee with any 36 other disability, pursuant to the provisions of this section which 37 provide that discrimination and refusal to provide reasonable accommo-
38 dation of disability are unlawful discriminatory practices.

39 (d) To the extent allowed by law, employers shall maintain the confi-
40 dentiality of any information regarding an employee's status as a victim
41 of domestic violence.

42 § 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 43 have become a law.
