AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, in relation to authorizing the state of New York mortgage agency to purchase veterans' assisted forward commitment mortgages from banks within the state

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section 2405-g to read as follows:

§ 2405-g. Purchase of veterans' assisted forward commitment mortgages.

(1) In accordance with the authority set forth in section twenty-four hundred five-b of this part, the agency may purchase veterans' assisted forward commitment mortgages from banks at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as it shall determine. In conducting its program of purchasing veterans' assisted forward commitment mortgages, the agency shall be governed by section twenty-four hundred five-b of this part. The board of directors of the agency shall establish from time to time maximum income limits of persons eligible to receive such mortgages, which income limits shall not exceed the latest maximum income limits permitted under the internal revenue code of 1986, as amended, for mortgages financed by mortgage revenue bonds.

(2) For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Veteran" means a person who served in the active military, naval, or air service during a time of war as defined below, or who was a recipient of the armed forces expeditionary medal, navy expeditionary medal, marine corps expeditionary medal, or global war on terrorism expeditionary medal, and who was discharged or released therefrom under honorable conditions.

"Service during a time of war" means: (a) the individual in question was a recipient of the armed forces expeditionary medal, the navy exped-
