AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to designating offenses against law enforcement officers as hate crimes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 1, 2 and 4 of section 485.05 of the penal law, as added by chapter 107 of the laws of 2000, are amended to read as follows:

1. A person commits a hate crime when he or she commits a specified offense and either:

(a) intentionally selects the person against whom the offense is committed or intended to be committed in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability, or because of actual or perceived employment as emergency medical services personnel, a firefighter or a law enforcement officer, or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct, or

(b) intentionally commits the act or acts constituting the offense in whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability, or because of actual or perceived employment as emergency medical services personnel, a firefighter or a law enforcement officer, or sexual orientation of a person, regardless of whether the belief or perception is correct.

2. Proof of race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, religion, religious practice, age, disability, or because of actual or perceived employment as emergency medical services personnel, a firefighter or a law enforcement officer, or sexual orientation of the defendant, the
