AN ACT to amend the judiciary law, in relation to compensation for district attorneys

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 183-a of the judiciary law, as amended by chapter 1049 of the laws of 1974, is amended to read as follows:

§ 183-a. Compensation of certain district attorneys. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the district attorney of each county having a population of more than five hundred thousand according to the last federal census, exclusive of the counties of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond, shall receive an annual salary equivalent to that of a justice of the state supreme court together with such additional compensation as the legislative body of such county may provide by local law. Further, that the district attorney of each county having a population of more than one hundred thousand and less than five hundred thousand according to the last federal census, exclusive of the county of Richmond, and the district attorney of any county, the board of supervisors of which has designated such office as a full-time position pursuant to subdivision eight of section seven hundred of the county law, shall receive an annual salary equivalent to that of county judge in the county in which the district attorney is elected or appointed, together with such additional compensation as the legislative body of such county may provide by local law. Any increases in compensation to district attorneys after January first, two thousand seventeen, resulting from actions of the New York state commission on legislative, judicial and executive compensation shall be reimbursed to the county by the office of court administration and shall be paid on or before the last day of each calendar year in which such increase shall have been paid.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
