providing for a refund or credit described in subdivision (d) of section eleven hundred nineteen of this chapter or repealing such provision so provided must go into effect only on March first; provided further that a local law, ordinance or resolution providing for the exemption described in paragraph forty-five of subdivision (a) of section eleven hundred fifteen of this chapter or repealing any such exemption so provided and a resolution enacted pursuant to the authority of subdivi-sion (q) of this section provided such exemption or repealing such exemption so provided may go into effect immediately. No such local law, ordinance or resolution shall be effective unless a certified copy of such law, ordinance or resolution is mailed by registered or certified mail to the commissioner at the commissioner's office in Albany at least ninety days prior to the date it is to become effective. However, the commissioner may waive and reduce such ninety-day minimum notice requirement to a mailing of such certified copy by registered or certi-fied mail within a period of not less than thirty days prior to such effective date if the commissioner deems such action to be consistent with the commissioner's duties under section twelve hundred fifty of this article and the commissioner acts by resolution. Where the restriction provided for in section twelve hundred twenty-three of this article as to the effective date of a tax and the notice requirement provided for therein are applicable and have not been waived, the restriction and notice requirement in section twelve hundred twenty-three of this article shall also apply.

- § 6. Section 1210 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision (q) to read as follows:
- (q) Notwithstanding any other provision of state or local law, ordinance or resolution to the contrary:
- (1) Any city having a population of one million or more in which the taxes imposed by section eleven hundred seven of this chapter are in effect, acting through its local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to elect to provide the same exemption from such taxes as the fresh cut evergreen trees exemption during the two month period each year commencing on November first and ending on December thirty-first, from state sales and compensating use taxes described in paragraph forty-five of subdivision (a) of section eleven hundred fifteen of this chapter by enacting a resolution in the form set forth in paragraph two of this subdivision; whereupon, upon compliance with the provisions of subdivisions (d) and (e) of this section, such enactment of such resolution shall be deemed to be an amendment to such section eleven hundred seven and such section eleven hundred seven shall be deemed to incorporate such exemption as if it had been duly enacted by the state legislature and approved by the governor.
- 44 (2) Form of Resolution: Be it enacted by the (insert proper title of local legislative body) as follows:
  - Section 1. Receipts from sales of and consideration given or contracted to be given for purchases of fresh cut evergreen trees exempt from state sales and compensating use taxes during a two month period each year commencing on November first and ending on December thirty-first, pursuant to paragraph forty-five of subdivision (a) of section eleven hundred fifteen of the tax law shall also be exempt from sales and compensating use taxes imposed in this jurisdiction.
  - 2. This resolution shall take effect, (insert the date) and shall apply to sales made and uses occurring on and after that date although made or occurring under a prior contract.

A. 1735--A 4

§ 7. This act shall take effect on the first day of the sales tax quarterly period, as described in subdivision (b) of section 1136 of the tax law, beginning at least 90 days after the date this act shall have become a law and shall apply in accordance with the applicable transitional provisions of sections 1106 and 1217 of the tax law; provided that sections four and five of this act shall apply to sales made on or after the date such sections shall have taken effect; and provided further that the commissioner of taxation and finance shall be authorized on and after the date this act shall have become a law to adopt and amend any rules or regulations necessary to implement this act on its effective date.
