AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules and the judiciary law, in relation to dental, medical and podiatric malpractice actions and to establishing a limitation on noneconomic damages in personal injury actions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 3012-a of the civil practice law and rules, as 2 amended by chapter 507 of the laws of 1987, is amended to read as 3 follows: 4 § 3012-a. Certificate of merit in medical, dental and podiatric malp-5 ractice actions and actions against all other professionals. (a) In any б for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, or in any action action 7 for damages, contribution or indemnity arising out of alleged negligence 8 of a professional subject to the provisions of title VIII of the education law, the complaint shall be accompanied by a certificate, executed 9 10 by the attorney for the plaintiff, or other party asserting the cause 11 of action, declaring that: 12 (1) the attorney has reviewed the facts of the case and has consulted with at least one physician in medical malpractice actions, at least one 13 14 dentist in dental malpractice actions $[\mathbf{er}]_{\mathbf{r}}$ at least one podiatrist in podiatric malpractice actions, or at least one professional in the same 15 profession as the person or persons defendant in the subject suit in 16 17 other professional malpractice or negligence actions and who is licensed 18 to practice in this state or any other state and who the attorney 19 reasonably believes is knowledgeable in the relevant issues involved in 20 the particular action, and who has signed an affidavit concluding that 21 there is a reasonable basis for the commencement of an action, such 22 affidavit shall accompany the certificate required by this section, and that the attorney has concluded on the basis of such review [and], 1 consultation and affidavit that there is a reasonable basis for the 2 3 commencement of such action; or 4 (2) the attorney was unable to obtain the consultation and affida-5 vit required by paragraph one of this subdivision because a limitation б of time, established by article two of this chapter, would bar the action and that the certificate required by paragraph one 7 of this 8 subdivision could not reasonably be obtained before such time expired. 9 If a certificate is executed pursuant to this subdivision, the 10 certificate required by this section shall be filed within ninety 11 days after service of the complaint; or (3) the attorney was unable to obtain the consultation and affidavit 12 13 required by paragraph one of this subdivision because the attorney had 14 made three separate good faith attempts with three separate physicians, 15 dentists [•r], podiatrists or subject professionals, in accordance with 16 the provisions of paragraph one of this subdivision to obtain such 17 consultation and affidavit and none of those contacted would agree to such a consultation and affidavit. 18 19 (b) Where a certificate is required pursuant to this section, a single 20 certificate shall be filed for each action, even if more than one 21 defendant has been named in the complaint or is subsequently named. (c) Where the attorney intends to rely solely on the doctrine of "res 22 23 ipsa loquitur", this section shall be inapplicable. In such cases, the complaint shall be accompanied by a certificate, executed by the attor-24 25 ney, declaring that the attorney is solely relying on such doctrine and, 26 for that reason, is not filing a certificate required by this section. 27 (d) If a request by the plaintiff for the records of the plaintiff's 28 medical or dental treatment by the defendants has been made and such records have not been produced, the plaintiff shall not be required to 29 30 serve the certificate required by this section until ninety days after 31 such records have been produced. 32 (e) For purposes of this section, and subject to the provisions of 33 section thirty-one hundred one of this chapter, an attorney who submits 34 a certificate as required by paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of 35 this section and the physician, dentist [er], podiatrist or subject 36 professionals with whom the attorney consulted shall not be required to disclose the identity of the physician, dentist [or], podiatrist or 37 38 subject professionals consulted and the contents of such consultation and affidavit; provided, however, that when the attorney makes a claim 39 under paragraph three of subdivision (a) of this section that he was 40 41 unable to obtain the required consultation and affidavit with the physi-42 cian, dentist [or], podiatrist or subject professionals, the court may, 43 upon the request of a defendant made prior to compliance by the plain-44 tiff with the provisions of section thirty-one hundred one of this chap-45 ter, require the attorney to divulge to the court the names of physi-46 cians, dentists [or], podiatrists or subject professionals refusing such 47 consultation and affidavit. 48 (f) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to a plain-49 tiff who is not represented by an attorney. 50 (g) The plaintiff may, in lieu of serving the certificate required by 51 this section, provide the defendant or defendants with the information 52 required by paragraph one of subdivision (d) of section thirty-one 53 hundred one of this chapter within the period of time prescribed by this 54 section.

55 (h) The subject professional or professionals consulted may not be a 56 party to the litigation. A. 1742

(i) For purposes of this section, a complaint shall include a 1 2 complaint, third party complaint, an answer containing a counterclaim or 3 a cross claim. 4 § 2. Subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph 1 of subdivision (d) of 5 section 3101 of the civil practice law and rules, subparagraph (i) as б amended by chapter 184 of the laws of 1988 and subparagraph (ii) as 7 amended by chapter 165 of the laws of 1991, are amended to read as 8 follows: 9 (i) Upon request, each party shall identify each person whom the party expects to call as an expert witness at trial and shall disclose in 10 reasonable detail the subject matter on which each expert is expected to 11 testify, the substance of the facts and opinions on which each expert is 12 13 expected to testify, the qualifications of each expert witness and a 14 summary of the grounds for each expert's opinion. However, where a party 15 for good cause shown retains an expert an insufficient period of time 16 before the commencement of trial to give appropriate notice thereof, the 17 party shall not thereupon be precluded from introducing the expert's testimony at the trial solely on grounds of noncompliance with this 18 paragraph. In that instance, upon motion of any party, made before or at 19 20 trial, or on its own initiative, the court may make whatever order may 21 be just. [In an action for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, a 22 party, in responding to a request, may omit the names of medical, dental or podiatric experts but shall be required to disclose all other infor-23 24 mation concerning such experts otherwise required by this paragraph.] 25 (ii) In an action for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, any 26 party may, by written offer made to and served upon all other parties 27 and filed with the court, [offer to disclose the name of, and to] make available for examination upon oral deposition, any person the party 28 29 making the offer expects to call as an expert witness at trial. Within 30 twenty days of service of the offer, a party shall accept or reject the 31 offer by serving a written reply upon all parties and filing a copy 32 thereof with the court. Failure to serve a reply within twenty days of 33 service of the offer shall be deemed a rejection of the offer. If all 34 parties accept the offer, each party shall be required to produce his or 35 her expert witness for examination upon oral deposition upon receipt of 36 a notice to take oral deposition in accordance with rule thirty-one 37 hundred seven of this [chapter] article. If any party, having made or 38 accepted the offer, fails to make that party's expert available for oral 39 deposition, that party shall be precluded from offering expert testimony 40 at the trial of the action. 41 3. Subdivisions (b) and (c) of section 5031 of the civil practice 8 42 law and rules, as added by chapter 86 of the laws of 2003, are amended 43 to read as follows: (b) Awards for all past damages, all damages for future loss of 44 45 services, all damages for future loss of consortium, all damages in 46 wrongful death actions, and damages for future pain and suffering of 47 [five hundred] fifty thousand dollars or less shall be paid in a lump 48 sum. In any case in which all damages are to be paid in lump sums, the 49 judgment shall be entered on the total of the lump sums, without further 50 regard to this section. 51 (c) As to any award of damages for future pain and suffering in excess of [five hundred] fifty thousand dollars, the court shall determine the 52 53 greater of thirty-five percent of such damages or [five hundred] fifty thousand dollars and such amount shall be paid in a lump sum. The 54 thousand dollars and such amount shall be paid in a lump sum. The 55 remaining amount of the award for damages for future pain and suffering 56 shall be paid in a stream of payments over the period of time determined 1 by the trier of fact or eight years, whichever is less. The stream of 2 payments for future pain and suffering shall be calculated by dividing 3 the remaining amount of damages for future pain and suffering by the 4 number of years over which such payments shall be made to determine the 5 first year's payment and the payment due in each succeeding year shall 6 be computed by adding four percent to the previous year's payment. The 7 court shall determine the present value of the stream of payments by 8 applying a discount rate to the stream of payments.

9 § 4. Subdivisions (b) and (e) of section 5041 of the civil practice 10 law and rules, as added by chapter 682 of the laws of 1986, are amended 11 to read as follows:

(b) The court shall enter judgment in lump sum for past damages, for 12 13 future damages not in excess of [two hundred] fifty thousand dollars, 14 and for any damages, fees or costs payable in lump sum or otherwise 15 under subdivisions (c) and (d) of this section. For the purposes of this 16 section, any lump sum payment of a portion of future damages shall be deemed to include the elements of future damages in the same proportion 17 as such elements comprise of the total award for future damages as 18 19 determined by the trier of fact.

20 (e) With respect to awards of future damages in excess of [two 21 hundred] fifty thousand dollars in an action to recover damages for 22 personal injury, injury to property or wrongful death, the court shall 23 enter judgment as follows:

24 After making any adjustment prescribed by subdivisions (b), (c) and 25 of this section, the court shall enter a judgment for the amount of (d) 26 the present value of an annuity contract that will provide for the 27 payment of the remaining amounts of future damages in periodic install-28 ments. The present value of such contract shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted actuarial practices by applying the 29 30 discount rate in effect at the time of the award to the full amount of 31 the remaining future damages, as calculated pursuant to this subdivi-32 sion. The period of time over which such periodic payments shall be made 33 and the period of time used to calculate the present value of the annui-34 ty contract shall be the period of years determined by the trier of fact 35 in arriving at the itemized verdict; provided, however, that the period 36 of time over which such periodic payments shall be made and the period 37 time used to calculate the present value for damages attributable to of 38 pain and suffering shall be ten years or the period of time determined by the trier of fact, whichever is less. The court, as part of its judg-39 shall direct that the defendants and their insurance carriers 40 ment, 41 shall be required to offer and to guarantee the purchase and payment of 42 such an annuity contract. Such annuity contract shall provide for the 43 payment of the annual payments of such remaining future damages over the 44 period of time determined pursuant to this subdivision. The annual 45 payment for the first year shall be calculated by dividing the remaining 46 amount of future damages by the number of years over which such payments 47 shall be made and the payment due in each succeeding year shall be 48 computed by adding four percent to the previous year's payment. The addition of four percent to each of the previous year's payment shall be 49 the exclusive measure of interest, inflation, foregone investment oppor-50 51 tunity and any other measure of damage. Where payment of a portion of 52 the future damages terminates in accordance with the provisions of this 53 article, the four percent added payment shall be based only upon that 54 portion of the damages that remains subject to continued payment. 55 Unless otherwise agreed, the annual sum so arrived at shall be paid in 56 equal monthly installments and in advance.

to the enforcement of the claim or prosecution of the action. In comput-1 ing the fee, the costs as taxed, including interest upon a judgment, 2 shall be deemed part of the amount recovered. For the following or simi-3 shall be no deduction in computing such percentages: 4 lar items there 5 liens, assignments or claims in favor of hospitals, for medical care, б dental care, podiatric care and treatment by doctors and nurses, or of 7 self-insurers or insurance carriers.

8 4. In the event that claimant's or plaintiff's attorney believes in 9 good faith that the fee schedule set forth in subdivision two of this 10 section, because of extraordinary circumstances, will not give him 11 adequate compensation, application for greater compensation may be made 12 upon affidavit with written notice and an opportunity to be heard to the 13 claimant or plaintiff and other persons holding liens or assignments on 14 the recovery. Such application shall be made to the justice of the trial 15 part to which the action had been sent for trial; or, if it had not been 16 sent to a part for trial, then to the justice presiding at the trial 17 term calendar part of the court in which the action had been instituted; or, if no action had been instituted, then to the justice presiding at 18 the trial term calendar part of the Supreme Court for the county in the 19 20 judicial department in which the attorney has an office. Upon such 21 application, the justice, in his discretion, if extraordinary circumstances are found to be present, and without regard to the claimant's or 22 23 plaintiff's consent, may fix as reasonable compensation for legal services rendered an amount greater than that specified in the schedule 24 25 set forth in subdivision two of this section, provided, however, that 26 such greater amount shall not exceed the fee fixed pursuant to the 27 contractual arrangement, if any, between the claimant or plaintiff and 28 the attorney. If the application is granted, the justice shall make a 29 written order accordingly, briefly stating the reasons for granting the 30 greater compensation; and a copy of such order shall be served on all 31 persons entitled to receive notice of the application.

5. Any contingent fee in a claim or action for medical, dental or podiatric malpractice, or in any claim or action for property damage or personal injury, including death, brought on behalf of an infant shall continue to be subject to the provisions of section four hundred seventy-four of this [chapter] article.

37 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately, provided, however, that: 38 (a) The amendments effected by the provisions of sections one and five 39 of this act shall apply to subject actions commenced on and after such 40 date; and 41 (b) The amendments effected by the provisions of section six of this 42 act shall apply to retainer agreements executed on or after such date.
