Introduced by M. of A. McLAUGHLIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Environmental Conservation

AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to authorizing a study of animal life in the vicinity of the Dewey Loef-fel Hazardous Waste Site

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 49-0103 of the environmental conservation law is 2 amended by adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

3 7. Supervise and/or conduct a study of the marine life, amphibians and 4 mammals inhabiting the area known as the Dewey Loeffel Hazardous Waste
5 Site and the environs of Nassau Lake, Rensselaer County, for the purpose 6 of scientific analysis of the presence of toxic substances including but 7 not limited to polychlorinated biphenyls and volatile organic contam-
8 inants in such wildlife. The department shall, on or before February 9 first, two thousand nineteen, prepare a report to the governor and the 10 legislature outlining the specific findings of such study and assessing 11 the viability of implementation of a similar study which shall include 12 the residents of that area.

13 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
